

Chapter 1-2

The Omega who had been pampered since childhood had a delicate body and soft skin. Her skin was like expensive silk fabric, smooth and textured to the touch. Getting close to smell her pheromones, it was the scent of strawberry Baileys¹.

This was a liqueur that Liang Shi really liked. This scent in the romantic atmosphere stimulated every cell in Liang Shi's body.

The bedroom had no lights on, only moonlight filtering through the gauze curtains, the hazy moonlight spilling onto the Omega's body, coating her with a layer of enchanting color.

"Liang Shi." Xu Qingzhu clenched her fists. "Don't touch me."

"Without my mark, you'll die." This sentence suddenly appeared in Liang Shi's mind, and her body even wanted to say these words, but she bit down on her tongue tip.

Fortunately, she didn't say it out loud.

"I won't touch you." Liang Shi said as she backed away, her body leaning against the wardrobe, but her body was also constantly being attracted by the Omega pheromones. She gripped her palms tightly, her nails almost piercing through her skin. The pain helped her regain a trace of reason.

She knew she couldn't stay in this room any longer.

For a susceptible period Alpha and a heat period Omega to be in the same room resisting their bodily instincts was extremely difficult, especially when she currently couldn't fully control this body.

So she left behind a sentence, "I'll go call an ambulance for you."

Then she stumbled and ran out of the room.

The moment she left the room, plot content from the storyline was transmitted into her mind.

After the scumbag Alpha Liang Shi cut out Xu Qingzhu's glands, Xu Qingzhu escaped her control with the help of her admirers, was hospitalized for treatment, and after discharge, struggled to support the family enterprise, bringing it back from the dead and becoming someone respected by everyone in Haichuan City².

Meanwhile, the scumbag Alpha's glands were cut out by Xu Qingzhu's admirers and fed to dogs. She was also exposed as not being the real Alpha eldest daughter of the Liang family - the true Liang family heir was actually someone else. The original body already had countless enemies, and in the end, she was reduced to begging on the streets, had her legs broken by Xu Qingzhu's admirers, and even had her glands dug out and fed to dogs.

Liang Shi: "..."

Isn't living good?

Liang Shi swallowed, having not yet finished organizing these fragmentary contents when she saw the phone screen on the ground light up.

This was the original body's phone.

She picked it up and used facial recognition to unlock it. Messages kept popping up.

-How did it go? Was it successful?

-How does Haichuan's number one Omega taste? Slutty enough?

-If you get tired of playing with her, remember to call us, let's do it together. /smirk

-Now that you mention it, I want to try tomorrow too.

-How about tomorrow, together? @Liang Shi

The messages they sent in the group were numerous and chaotic, mostly revolving around Liang Shi and Xu Qingzhu.

Liang Shi frowned as she finished reading the messages, thinking what kind of trash the original body was.

To actually joke about her own wife with others.

She replied impatiently: [Get lost.]

The group immediately exploded.

But Liang Shi didn't look at their messages anymore.

She directly switched out and called 120, accurately stating the location and the type of suppressants needed.

Then she leaned against the door, gasping heavily. The dress on her back was already soaked through, now sticking clammily to her body. The sweet scent of Omega pheromones kept coming, and her rationality was once again on the verge of collapse.

She raised her hand and bit down hard on her hand, trying to use pain to divert her attention.

This pulled back a trace of rationality.

She gently pushed open the door, just wanting to check on Xu Qingzhu's condition, but unexpectedly, as soon as she opened the door, the Omega on the bed opened her eyes and warned her with a hoarse voice, "Don't come over."

Her expression was painful, clearly struggling to suppress the attraction of the pheromones.

Liang Shi didn't understand.

Why would that scumbag Alpha want to harm such a lovely Omega?

But thinking of Xu Qingzhu's future appearance and the original body's fate, Liang Shi's heart pounded. She suppressed her body's intense pain and forced herself to appear calm: "The ambulance will be here soon. By the way, let me tell you a secret."

Xu Qingzhu looked up, those hazy eyes showing confusion.

The silk camisole had slipped down, revealing that proud cleavage.

Liang Shi turned her face away and said awkwardly: "Actually, I'm unable to mark with my pheromones."

Xu Qingzhu: "?"

"So don't worry." Liang Shi said: "I can't do it."

Xu Qingzhu: "...?"
