

Chapter 10

Pedestrians hurried past on the road, constantly brushing shoulders with them, and occasionally you could hear a few compliments.

All praising Xu Qingzhu.

Xu Qingzhu finished tying the bow knot on Liang Shi's palm bandage, her slender fingers withdrawing and maintaining an appropriate distance from Liang Shi again.

She wore a light smile on her face, but her eyes were cold and calm, like a waveless ancient well, displaying a clear and cold temperament.

Liang Shi's gaze fell on her eyes, then quickly withdrew.

It wasn't that she hadn't thought about being discovered.

She just hadn't expected it to happen so quickly.

Her personality and the original body's were two extremes—one liked noise, the other quiet; one was naturally dissolute, the other calm and reserved. It was impossible for her not to go out of character after transmigrating.

But now... it didn't seem like a good time to admit it.

Liang Shi was nervous for a moment, then smiled and said: "No."

Xu Qingzhu breathed a sigh of relief, her smile widening, and the scrutinizing look in her eyes became even more intense, as if she wanted to see what exactly was inside this shell—human or ghost.

But Liang Shi raised her face and laughed softly, "If I'm not Liang Shi, then who could I be?"

When she smiled, she was warm like spring breeze, like a bright moon, her eyes full of tenderness.

She stared intently at Xu Qingzhu, that gaze carrying no aggression whatsoever.

Completely different from the original body.

"Who knows." Xu Qingzhu's voice was clear and cold, with a somewhat ethereal quality, "Perhaps only you know?"

"What a thing to say." Liang Shi gently touched her forehead with her newly bandaged hand, appearing helpless, "Of course I know, I am Liang Shi."

"Is that so?" Xu Qingzhu had a smile at the corner of her mouth, but revealed an unfathomable expression.

This smile was very much like what Liang Shi used to see at negotiation tables.

She thought that if Xu Qingzhu hadn't married the original body to become a full-time wife, she would have been an excellent career woman.

In fact, in the novel, Xu Qingzhu would transform after leaving the scumbag Alpha and become the CEO of a listed company.

Liang Shi hoped her partner would have a job.

Because work represented confidence.

A lover's affection might change, but one's own abilities wouldn't.

To love someone, you must first love yourself.

Liang Shi's thoughts wandered for a moment, but she quickly came back to her senses. Facing Xu Qingzhu's deep gaze without flinching, she smiled, "Of course. Otherwise, am I a different person? How about I reintroduce myself—I'm Liang Shi's sister, Liang He¹?"

She deliberately used a joking tone to ease the atmosphere.

But Xu Qingzhu stared at her motionlessly, her smile freezing on her face, as if she wanted to stare a hole through her.

Liang Shi's palm broke out in a cold sweat.

To be honest, being stared at like this was very oppressive.

Especially since Xu Qingzhu was deliberately putting pressure on her.

She kept her perfect smile on her face, not rushing to speak, waiting for Xu Qingzhu to speak first.

After a long while, Xu Qingzhu smiled, "Is that so? Liang He."

Her voice was cold with a hint of allure, softly pronouncing this name almost syllable by syllable, like taking a feather to tickle someone's heart. With each word she spoke, Liang Shi's heart trembled, and she even quietly swallowed.

It seemed like... because her target's appearance and voice were too superior, she was having trouble maintaining control.

After all, this was Haicheng's number one Omega, the object of countless Alphas' desires.

"Mm-hmm." Liang Shi was panicking inside but showed nothing on her face. She was someone who had won the Golden Rooster Award for Best Supporting Actress, so naturally she couldn't lose in an acting battle with someone with no acting skills. "I think this name is pretty good too."

"But Liang Shi doesn't have a sister." Xu Qingzhu said: "She only has two older sisters and one older brother."

Liang Shi clicked her tongue inwardly.

Truly the female lead, so smart.

Was she trying to trick her now?

Fortunately, she knew some details.

"Is that so?" Liang Shi smiled, "I haven't been in touch for so long, I didn't know one of my brothers had a sex change. I wonder if it was Liang Xinzhou or Liang Xinhe who changed?"

A flash of surprise crossed Xu Qingzhu's eyes, "So you still remember."

"Of course, if I couldn't even remember my own siblings, wouldn't that be too despicable." Liang Shi said.

After saying this, she added silently in her heart: They're not even real siblings anyway.

The original body's real parents were probably in some corner somewhere.

According to typical novel development, the real parents of such cannon fodder female supporting characters must be terrible people—either for money or power, in any case very profit-oriented, short-sighted petty citizens, which is why they would do something like switching daughters.

Liang Shi didn't hold much hope for this.

She only hoped that if they really found her real parents in the future, they wouldn't become her burden.

"If Xinzhou and Xinhe heard this, they'd probably be moved to tears." There was some sarcasm in Xu Qingzhu's words, which Liang Shi accepted readily. But she looked at Xu Qingzhu, "You don't seem like Xu Qingzhu either."

"Is that so?" Xu Qingzhu looked over indifferently, throwing the question back to her, "Then who do you think I look like?"

"I don't know." Liang Shi shook her head gently, her gaze tender, "This is probably something only you know."

She easily deflected and returned the topic to Xu Qingzhu.

"Liang Shi likes to use her right hand." Xu Qingzhu said: "But you seem to be left-handed. You've been carrying things with your left hand all along, and even the injured hand is your right hand."

Liang Shi hadn't expected Xu Qingzhu to observe so carefully. She smiled, "Actually, I'm ambidextrous. If you don't believe me, you can ask my parents."

Xu Qingzhu definitely wouldn't ask the Liang family parents about this matter.

Because when Liang Shi wanted to marry Xu Qingzhu, the Liang family parents didn't agree.

Liang Shi only liked Xu Qingzhu's reputation and face, but the Liang family parents valued family background more. If they had to choose, they would definitely choose Liang Shi's childhood friend—Lin Xingcan, the daughter of Shengmao Group.

At that time, the original body had a big fight with her family to marry Xu Qingzhu.

Liang Shi still had remnants of this memory in her mind, which made her even more confused about why the original body's temperament changed drastically after marriage, endlessly bullying Xu Qingzhu.

"Is that so? I guess I didn't understand well enough." Xu Qingzhu stood up from the bench, the wind blowing her long hair and dress. That slender waist looked very suitable for embracing on an autumn day.

She tucked her loose hair behind her ear, "It looks like you've changed a lot."

Her voice was very soft, mostly probing.

Liang Shi easily deflected back, "You've changed a lot too."

Hearing this, Xu Qingzhu suddenly turned to look at her, raising an eyebrow slightly, "Specifically?"

"You've become emotionless." Liang Shi said: "And you hate me very much."

Xu Qingzhu laughed.

She was facing Liang Shi directly, from a looking-down angle, her brown pupils appearing heartless and indifferent, "That's because..."

She paused, "I don't like you anymore."

Liang Shi looked up. At this distance, they would almost be able to kiss if they got a little closer.

It was the degree where souls were almost touching.

But they were actually very far apart.

Liang Shi lightly licked her lips, "Then I'm... starting to like you now."

Her eyes curved into crescents, full of devotion, "Perhaps we can get to know each other again."

As soon as she finished speaking, a shout came from not far away, "Lion²."

Liang Shi hadn't reacted yet, until that exceptionally beautiful Omega stood in front of her, even lightly but deliberately pushing Xu Qingzhu aside, showing a cute and playful expression as she acted spoiled: "Lion, I was just calling you, why didn't you respond?"

Liang Shi: ".....?"

This seemed to be Lin Xingcan?

Oh my, help.

Footnotes: ¹ Liang He: "梁合" - Liang Shi makes up this fake name on the spot. "合" (hé) means "to combine" or "together" ² Lion: "獅子" (shīzi) - Lin Xingcan's nickname for the original Liang Shi, likely because "Shi" (适) sounds similar to "shi" (狮) in "lion"
