

Chapter 14-2

//

Liang Shi slept for a day and a half, finally restoring her energy.

She handled her own discharge procedures and drove the car to the 4S shop¹ to exchange it for a white Porsche.

When she returned to the hospital, it was already afternoon.

She went up to the tenth floor, to Xu Qingzhu's hospital room. Standing at the door, she heard cheerful laughter.

She hesitated about whether to go in, but heard Zhao Xuning behind her say, "If you're going in, go in. If not, don't block the way."

Liang Shi: "..."

She pushed open the door and went in. The cheerful laughter in the room came to an abrupt halt.

Bai Weiwei rolled her eyes when she saw her and said sarcastically, "Oh my, Second Miss Liang is here. Aren't you afraid this place will dirty your shoes?"

Liang Shi didn't respond, only looked toward Xu Qingzhu and asked gently, "Are you feeling better?"

Xu Qingzhu nodded and gave a cold "mm" in response.

"There's no time like the present," Bai Weiwei said, "Why not right now? The civil affairs bureau² isn't closed yet. You two should go get your divorce certificate."

Liang Shi immediately said, "Who says we're getting divorced?"

"Second Miss Liang, if you don't want a divorce, then we'll see you in court," Bai Weiwei stood up to confront her, "Our Bamboo³ isn't someone to be bullied. I've consulted with a lawyer—even within marriage, forcing an Omega to have sex and forcibly marking an Omega are both illegal."

Liang Shi: "..."

But she wasn't the one who did that.

But who told the original body to commit such sins?

"I have no such intention," Liang Shi explained.

Bai Weiwei snorted coldly.

Liang Shi's phone vibrated slightly. She took it out to look—it was a voice message from Qiu Zimin.

She clicked to convert it to text, but accidentally hit play instead.

Qiu Zimin's voice rang out in the hospital room: "Tonight at 7:30 at Cangyue Restaurant, don't be late. Even if you've changed your mind, you need to go tell Zhou Yi'an yourself. I won't..."

Liang Shi frantically kept pressing the wrong button, and finally managed to hit pause.

But everyone had heard what they needed to hear.

Everyone in the hospital room looked unpleasant.

Liang Shi immediately said, "Xu Qingzhu, I can explain."

But Xu Qingzhu lay down and pulled the covers over herself, her voice very light: "Please leave. I'm tired."

Liang Shi: "..."

At this rate, she'd never get 80 luck points even in her next lifetime!

Footnotes:

¹ 4S shop (4S店): In China, these are comprehensive automotive service shops that provide Sales, Spares (parts), Service, and Survey (customer feedback). They're typically authorized dealers for specific car brands.

² Civil affairs bureau (民政局): The government office in China responsible for civil matters including marriage registration and divorce procedures.

³ Bamboo (竹子): Bai Weiwei's nickname for Xu Qingzhu, playing on the "zhu" (竹) character in her name which means bamboo.