

Chapter 154-8

//

When she woke up the next day, Xu Qingzhu felt her head was heavy and stuffy, as if someone had hit the back of her head with a club.

Sunlight fell into the room through the gaps in the curtains. When she opened her eyes, she saw Liang Shi.

Liang Shi was sleeping quietly. Though seemingly at her side, she had kept a slight distance, afraid of disturbing her sleep.

Actually, she had just had another nightmare—not the previous one, but still quite a terrifying dream.

It had nothing to do with Liang Shi, but it still scared her heart into palpitations.

But upon waking and seeing Liang Shi, she suddenly smiled, wanting very much to snuggle up against her.

Xu Qingzhu felt her throat was terribly dry, as if her whole body was about to catch fire.

She wanted to get out of bed quietly, but the moment she moved, Liang Shi opened her eyes, her voice carrying the hoarseness of just waking up: "You're awake?"

Xu Qingzhu nodded: "Mm."

No longer avoiding it, she directly snuggled into Liang Shi's arms, burying her head in the crook of her neck. "I made you worry last night. I'm sorry."

Liang Shi gently stroked her back. "Does your head hurt?"

"No." Xu Qingzhu coughed lightly. "I want to drink water."

Liang Shi released the fingers that were entwined in her hair. "I'll go pour some for you."

After saying that, she got up.

Xu Qingzhu lay there watching her back, then also got up and casually grabbed a piece of clothing from the closet to change into.

What she casually grabbed was Liang Shi's shirt.

It just barely covered her bottom.

After tossing her clothes into the laundry basket, Xu Qingzhu left the room. Liang Shi was standing in the kitchen pouring honey for her.

Xu Qingzhu walked over and hugged her from behind. She clearly felt Liang Shi's back stiffen, then she asked gently: "Why didn't you keep lying down?"

"I've been lying down all night." Xu Qingzhu said, "My back hurts."

"Alright then." Liang Shi said as she stirred the glass of water.

Xu Qingzhu asked: "How did you guys handle things last night? What about Qin Lishuang?"

Liang Shi paused for a moment. "We beat her up, then had Zhao Xuning record a video of her with a bruised and swollen face."

Xu Qingzhu: "...Why does it feel like middle schoolers fighting?"

"There was no other way." Liang Shi said, "She's despicable and base. We couldn't bring this matter out into the open, so we could only deal with her in secret."

At the time, Xu Qingzhu was still in a passive state, so they really couldn't do anything to Qin Lishuang.

After all, it was the Qin family's banquet.

However, Liang Shi had Zhao Xuning notify Qin Liushuang about this matter. If Qin Liushuang was a sensible person, she should know what to do.

At the very least, she couldn't let Qin Lishuang continue acting so recklessly.

The Qin family was powerful, but if several families joined forces, the Qin family would also be in danger.

Qin Liushuang needed to tighten up.

Liang Shi had also rarely asked her eldest brother for help, borrowing his authority to intimidate Qin Liushuang.

As for the rest, Zhou Yi'an had directly beaten people up.

Zhao Xuning had also stepped up to help.

To Qin Liushuang, this was tacit understanding that these people would all become the Qin family's enemies.

If it were just one family, Qin Liushuang could still shield Qin Lishuang. But with so many families at once... as long as Qin Liushuang wasn't stupid, she would definitely force Qin Lishuang to come out and apologize.

They just needed to sit and wait for the results.

Then Xu Qingzhu suddenly asked: "Did she ask you to be her model before?"

After saying that, she paused and corrected herself: "That person."

"Mm." Liang Shi said, "When she paints people, it's very disgusting."

Xu Qingzhu's arms tightened. Even Liang Shi's abs tensed up. With laughter in her voice, she said: "Baby, you're hugging too tight."

Xu Qingzhu rubbed her head against her back: "I'm comforting you."

Liang Shi: "..."

When the two were together, they seemed much more intimate than when separated by a camera lens.

Even those barriers had dissolved.

It seemed Xu Qingzhu wasn't having nightmares anymore, nor did she feel immense mental pressure from those events. She had simply stripped away to her most authentic self through those experiences.

Liang Shi finished preparing the water for her, scooped some with a spoon to test the temperature, and only turned around once it wasn't too hot.

But she froze when she saw her attire.

No bra, the shirt buttons fastened haphazardly—clearly dressed in a hurry.

The collar was wide open, with one button at the very top left undone, clearly revealing her collarbones.
