

Chapter 4-1

"No." Liang Shi instinctively retorted: "I won't divorce you."

As soon as the words left her mouth, Liang Shi felt shocked.

This wasn't her intention.

From the current perspective, divorce was the best choice for Xu Qingzhu.

As Haichuan's number one Omega, she still had a bright future ahead of her. She could meet more Alphas, and there were plenty who were better than Liang Shi. Someone would surely not mind that she had been married before and would always treat her well.

But Liang Shi said again: "As long as I'm alive, I won't divorce you."

Liang Shi's brow furrowed into a small mountain. She clutched her chest tightly, the pain causing her to step back half a pace. A large bead of sweat fell from her forehead, and her face instantly turned pale.

It was as if someone was controlling her body.

Or perhaps the original body's consciousness hadn't completely disappeared, and on the matter of divorcing Xu Qingzhu, her attitude was very resolute.

"What's the point?" Xu Qingzhu curled her lips in a mocking smile: "After all, you don't really love me anyway."

"I'm sorry..." Liang Shi realized she couldn't stop the original body's consciousness from speaking, so she could only frown and apologize, "I have some things to take care of right now. We'll discuss this matter later."

After saying this, she fled from the ward in panic.

Bai Weiwei and Zhao Xuning, who were standing at the ward door, stared at her retreating figure in bewilderment.

"Liang Shi seems..." Zhao Xuning frowned slightly, thinking for a moment before saying: "Different from before."

"Isn't she always like this? After bullying Zhuzhu, she tucks her tail between her legs and acts all nice to Zhuzhu." Bai Weiwei rolled her eyes in the direction Liang Shi had left, "Zhuzhu definitely has to divorce her this time."

"She can't divorce." Zhao Xuning said calmly.

Bai Weiwei looked up, "Why not?"

Zhao Xuning just shook her head and entered the ward to check on Xu Qingzhu's condition.

After leaving the ward, Liang Shi went downstairs to buy a bottle of water from the self-service vending machine.

The ice water sliding down her throat finally calmed her down.

Wearing the hospital gown, she sat in the hospital lobby. People coming and going always looked at her a few times, achieving a 100% head-turning rate.

But Liang Shi didn't feel anything.

She was already used to standing under spotlights, able to withstand millions of photographers' and paparazzi's cameras, so naturally she wouldn't be afraid of a few passersby's gazes.

What really made her depressed and irritated was the original body's residual consciousness.

She said she would rather die than divorce Xu Qingzhu.

But what should she do now if she didn't divorce?

If she went to explain to Xu Qingzhu - I'm not the former Liang Shi anymore, I've changed, I'll be good to you - the original body had probably said these words more than once. Just from some flashback fragments in her memory, it was enough to prove how badly the original body had treated Xu Qingzhu.

They had been married for four months, and Liang Shi had openly and secretly lost her temper many times because Xu Qingzhu wouldn't let her mark her.

Last night's party had been held at the villa more than once.

Because the original body was angry, she never let the servants intervene each time, making Xu Qingzhu do everything.

Xu Qingzhu probably felt somewhat guilty, so she did it silently every time.

Liang Shi now seemed to be stuck in a deadlock.

【Detection shows there is still unresolved resentment in the host's body. One hundred luck points are needed to completely unlock usage rights of this body.】

A cold mechanical voice emerged from Liang Shi's mind, startling her so much that she shivered.

She thought encountering something like transmigrating into a book was ridiculous enough, but she didn't expect there to be a system too.

She pretended to be calm as she took a sip of ice water, asking in her mind: "Who are you?"

【This is the Resentment Management Bureau, responsible for appeasing the resentment of those about to die. However, detecting that you have illegally occupied someone else's body, we are taking action against you.】

"Then why not let her come back?"

The system was silent for three seconds, then answered in a very eerie tone: 【She was really too scummy.】

Liang Shi: "..."

"What are luck points?" Liang Shi asked.

【The favorability gained from conquering the luck target is what we call luck points. Here, the luck target is Xu Qingzhu. By gaining her affection, trust, and adoration, and obtaining one hundred luck points, your body will also be transported here, completely replacing the original.】

"What about the original?"

The system fell silent again.

After a moment, it still spoke in that eerie voice: 【Send her back to the happy homeland.】

Liang Shi: "..."

"What about my previous body?"

【It's in a coma, already judged as vegetative. If your body is transported here, all memories from there will be erased, and no one will remember you.】

Liang Shi pressed her lips together, suddenly feeling a surge of desolation in her heart, "So it's as if I never existed there?"

【Roughly speaking, but you can also choose not to transport your body here. You just need to reach 80 luck points to completely replace the original.】

"What if I want to go back?" Liang Shi asked calmly.

This time the system was silent longer than before. After the silence, it spoke in an eerily comforting tone: 【Perhaps you'd like to watch a video?】

Liang Shi nodded, and then images spread across her mind.

It came with comments under the trending topic #Liang Shi Vegetative#.

[This kind of person deserves to die.]

[How is she only vegetative? She should just die.]

[I heard she's an orphan, and a total loser, social scum.]

[Speechless, no wonder she could never make it to the mainstream.]

[...]

Thousands and thousands of messages were all cursing her, and the camera switched to show a hospital room.

Her agent, Sister Wang, sighed helplessly, "Let's just leave it at that. We'll issue a retirement statement to the public."

Liang Shi's heart felt like it was pressed down by a huge stone, so heavy she couldn't breathe.

It turned out she had always been a burden.
