

Chapter 6-2

**

On the other side, Liang Shi saw Cheng Ran.

Cheng Ran had dyed brown waves, wore a tight mini skirt, and heavy makeup that was very similar to the makeup the original body had been wearing when Liang Shi first arrived.

Liang Shi could smell the pungent perfume from far away. She fanned her nose with her hand, glad that she hadn't let Cheng Ran into Xu Qingzhu's ward.

"Let's go." Cheng Ran said: "Let's go see Xu Qingzhu."

"No need." When Liang Shi refused, she distanced herself from her, "She's sleeping."

Cheng Ran turned around to look at her with suspicion: "Liang Shi, when did you become so considerate?"

Liang Shi: "..."

"Fine, can't I just not touch her?" Cheng Ran said: "Are you being serious? Guarding against me like I'm a thief."

Liang Shi pressed her lips together and called her name seriously: "Cheng Ran."

She felt it was very necessary to make things clear with Cheng Ran.

If she continued to get entangled with someone like Cheng Ran, Xu Qingzhu couldn't help but misunderstand her.

But just as she finished speaking, her phone rang again - an unknown number.

She turned around to answer: "Hello?"

A wronged voice came from the other end: "Sister Liang Shi."

Liang Shi: "..."

Who was this again?

The original body's habit of not adding contact notes was really bad.

"Is my sister with you?" Xu Qingya said, "If she is, please avoid her first."

Liang Shi: "..."

Who was her sister?

"Sister Liang Shi?" Xu Qingya called tentatively: "Are you and my sister together? Are you at the villa?"

Liang Shi realized - this should be Xu Qingzhu's younger sister.

Liang Shi coughed lightly: "We're not together. What's wrong?"

Xu Qingya said huffily: "Good that you're not, otherwise I'd get tattled on again. Sister Liang Shi, can you give me fifty thousand yuan? Don't let my sister know about this. My dad froze my card, and I have nowhere to stay now."

Liang Shi had seen too many rebellious teenage girls running away from home when she was in film crews, so she remained calm at this moment and only asked: "Where are you now?"

"Cloud Top Building." Xu Qingya instructed her, "Don't tell my sister about this."

Liang Shi didn't immediately agree: "I'm coming to find you now. Find a place to stay."

Xu Qingya was obviously very familiar with her and trusted her: "Okay."

After hanging up, Liang Shi was thinking about how to handle this matter when she heard Xu Qingzhu's voice behind her.

She called coldly: "Liang Shi."

Liang Shi turned around and saw her standing at the door, face pale.

She asked: "Did Yaya contact you?"

Liang Shi: "..."

After a moment, she answered without hesitation: "She did."
