

Chapter 7-2

**

Actually, Liang Shi had many ways to break off with Cheng Ran gracefully.

She could avoid meeting when Cheng Ran looked for her, or find some trivial matter to have a big fight with Cheng Ran and end things there.

But Liang Shi chose the most straightforward method.

She didn't want to waste too much time on this kind of interpersonal relationship.

Thinking pessimistically, if she couldn't obtain 80 luck points within three months, these would be the last three months of her life. How much time did she have to maneuver around with them?

It was too exhausting.

Better to keep it simple.

She stood at the door of Xu Qingzhu's hospital room, extending the back of her hand to wipe the corner of her mouth, bloodstains falling onto her hand.

She frowned slightly, not wanting Xu Qingzhu to see this.

But this scene fell into Zhao Xuning's eyes.

Zhao Xuning spoke coldly, "Move aside."

Liang Shi stepped aside, making way for her.

Zhao Xuning was usually a woman of few words, but as she passed by Liang Shi's side, she couldn't help but ask curiously, "Did you fight with Cheng Ran?"

Liang Shi wearily responded with a "mm."

Zhao Xuning curved the corner of her mouth in a smile that wasn't quite a smile, carrying a hint of mockery. "How rare."

After saying this, she entered the hospital room.

Xu Qingzhu had already changed her clothes. These were new clothes that Bai Weiwei had brought when she came to visit her.

A bright yellow fitted knee-length dress, with her slender arms and beautiful collarbones exposed. She was already thin, and wearing this dress made her waist look impossibly narrow.

Particularly eye-catching.

If placed in Liang Shi's original world, Xu Qingzhu would definitely become a top star in the entertainment industry, leaving everyone in the dust in annual goddess polls.

The needle pierced into Xu Qingzhu's slender, pale arm, her blood vessels visible under the sunlight.

This made Liang Shi's heart tighten.

Such an arm didn't seem suitable for injections.

It looked quite shocking.

So Liang Shi looked away.

After Zhao Xuning finished giving Xu Qingzhu the inhibitor injection, she asked, "How long will you be out?"

"Probably half a day." Xu Qingzhu said: "I'll be back in the evening."

"What are you going to do? Is it convenient to say?" Zhao Xuning asked.

"My dad tore up Yaya's idol posters and threw away her merchandise¹, so she ran away from home." Xu Qingzhu stood up, "I'm leaving first. Don't tell Weiwei about this."

If Weiwei knew she had left the hospital without permission because of her sister's matter, she would definitely be unhappy.

"Got it." Zhao Xuning asked: "Are you going with her?"

Her gaze was directed at Liang Shi.

Xu Qingzhu thought for a moment, then nodded lightly, "She knows where Yaya is."

In fact, only she knew.

"Then be careful on the road." Zhao Xuning said, "Call me if anything happens."

★★

Coming out of the hospital room, they took the elevator straight down to the underground parking garage.

After Liang Shi was hospitalized, the butler had already driven her car over.

In the black and white underground parking garage, that gaudy green car was extremely conspicuous.

Although Liang Shi really didn't want to admit it, she had no choice but to bring Xu Qingzhu to that car.

She pressed the unlock button again, and the car's front and rear lights lit up.

Liang Shi: "....."

Just how many aesthetic surprises did the original body have that she didn't know about?

She first opened the passenger door, and under Xu Qingzhu's slightly disdainful gaze, she said with feigned composure: "Get in."

After Xu Qingzhu got in the car, she got in herself.

But she noticed that Xu Qingzhu was looking at her very seriously.

Those eyes carried scrutiny and curiosity. When the car drove out of the parking garage, she suddenly spoke: "Why did you fight with Cheng Ran?"

"Huh?" At the moment the car started, the engine sound was too loud, and Liang Shi didn't hear clearly, "What did you say?"

"Nothing." Xu Qingzhu dropped the topic, sitting in the passenger seat with her eyes closed, pretending to rest.

She maintained a very cold demeanor throughout.

When the car was driving smoothly, Liang Shi discussed with her, "Could you not appear first when we get there?"

"What do you mean?" Xu Qingzhu opened her eyes, looking at her coldly.

"I promised your sister not to tell you." Liang Shi said: "But I think I can't lie to you."

"This isn't the first time you've lied to me." Xu Qingzhu said coldly.

"But I'm not lying to you this time." Liang Shi explained, "Your sister contacted me first, she must have something inconvenient to tell you, so let me go first, feel out what she has to say, then tell you everything, okay?"

"What if I say no?" Xu Qingzhu said.

Liang Shi: "....."

She pulled the car over to the side of the road, "Then I have no way to take you there."

Xu Qingzhu laughed coldly, "Finally showing your true colors."

"No." Liang Shi sighed helplessly, "I said I wouldn't hurt you, so correspondingly, I won't lie to you either. Your sister is currently fighting with your parents and has run away from home, and she hasn't called you, she must still be angry and emotional. If you appear in front of her now, what if she has an extreme reaction?"

"Our family affairs don't need Miss Liang to worry about." Xu Qingzhu drew a clear line with her, directly calling her Miss Liang.

Liang Shi pressed her lips together, her voice carrying a sense of helplessness, "I'm afraid she might say something hurtful that would make you sad."

Xu Qingzhu looked at her, somewhat incredulous.

Was this really Liang Shi?

Liang Shi's hand gently rested on her shoulder, her gaze sincere and warm, "Xu Qingzhu, trust me once, okay?"

Liang Shi without makeup had very beautiful eyes, with warmth enough to melt people. Being stared at so intensely by her, Xu Qingzhu's heart actually skipped a beat.

But quickly, she looked away.

Liang Shi's tone became even more sincere, even carrying a hint of pleading humility.

Listening carefully, it even sounded like acting spoiled, "This is the last time, okay?"

Xu Qingzhu nodded lightly.

She thought, she would try trusting Liang Shi one last time.

Footnotes: ¹ Merchandise: Refers to collectible items related to idols/celebrities, commonly called "周邊" (zhōubiān) in Chinese, including posters, photo cards, accessories, etc.