

Chapter 92-2

//

Three-tenths of a heart on a scale of ten was already the greatest sincerity Cheng Ran could give.

At that moment, Liang Shi had ten thousand things she wanted to say, such as: How much is your sincerity worth? Do you think others should go through fire and water for your three-tenths of sincerity? Do you think that's cool? Do you really think Gu Xingyue should give everything for your three-tenths of a heart and tolerate your debauchery?

.....

There were too many things she wanted to scold her for, but in the end she didn't say a single word and just hung up the phone directly.

Whether it was worth it or not should be left for the person involved to judge.

Just like Bai Weiwei before, she loved Chen Liuying so much that she was willing to give up herself—no one could persuade her otherwise. Instead, anyone who tried to advise her would be placed on the opposite side.

Liang Shi had always maintained a neutral attitude toward such things: respect.

After the phone call ended, the room fell into a strange silence.

The living room light was dim and yellow. Liang Shi placed the white towel back on top of Xu Qingzhu's head. Xu Qingzhu's head tilted back, and her half-wet hair fell on Liang Shi's legs.

The wind suddenly blew open the window. The bad weather in the evening seemed to be preparing for this moment. In an instant, dark clouds gathered, and the wind howled, rolling up dead branches and rotten leaves, blowing down the yellow leaves that stubbornly hung on the treetops in unison, sweeping them all away into the distance together.

Liang Shi got up to close the window, then locked it before returning to the living room.

"How ridiculous," Xu Qingzhu suddenly said coldly.

Liang Shi pressed her lips together, knowing she was talking about Cheng Ran, and said in a low voice: "Yes."

"Why would she think others would treasure her three-tenths of sincerity?" Xu Qingzhu said. "Gu Xingyue loved with ten-tenths, but she only gave three-tenths, and she still acted like she was being charitable from a high position. Why should Gu Xingyue be with her?"

Liang Shi shook her head on her own. "I mentioned to Gu Xingyue before to stay away from Cheng Ran."

"She didn't listen?" Xu Qingzhu asked.

Liang Shi answered in a low voice: "I don't know, but looking at how things are now, she probably didn't listen."

Liang Shi had only mentioned it to Gu Xingyue before. At that time, Gu Xingyue even disliked her, so naturally she wouldn't take her advice to heart.

She was mainly afraid that Gu Xingyue would get hurt.

Looking at it now, this was unavoidable.

After all, for someone like Cheng Ran to be willing to give three-tenths of her heart...

The reason why players are attractive is because they're promiscuous, they treat the whole world with cynicism, but they've given you three-tenths of their heart—ordinary people like this kind of uniqueness.

Especially good girls like Gu Xingyue.

But they forget that if they dated ordinary people, they could get seven or eight-tenths of sincerity, ten-tenths of love.

Why settle for three-tenths?

Xu Qingzhu picked at her nails and suddenly said: "Teacher Liang, blow-dry my hair for me."

"Okay." Liang Shi got up to get the hairdryer from the cabinet in the bathroom.

She still sat on the sofa. The warm wind blew through her fingers, then through Xu Qingzhu's hair strands wrapped around her fingers, and then toward the top of Xu Qingzhu's head.

Xu Qingzhu continued to think while facing the paper.

After Liang Shi finished blow-drying her hair, she took the hair tie from her own arm to tie up Xu Qingzhu's hair. As her fingers ran through her smooth hair, Xu Qingzhu suddenly said: "Go wait at the kindergarten tomorrow and see if you can catch Gu Xingyue. Don't contact her by phone anymore."

"Mm." Liang Shi responded with a sound.

Xu Qingzhu spun the pen in her hand once, then drew a line on the paper. "I'm guessing she was discovered by Yang Jiani about her relationship, then she wanted to resist Yang Jiani to be with Cheng Ran. But when she went to find Cheng Ran again, she discovered Cheng Ran was already mixing around with someone else. Her heart died. She might have wanted to give up on herself, or she realized that after Yang Jiani discovered her behavior, it would cause serious consequences, so she called you. But she didn't expect Yang Jiani to discover that too, so her situation is very dangerous right now."

Liang Shi: "....."

After listening to Xu Qingzhu's entire chain of speculation, Liang Shi felt like she hadn't brought her brain and could only ask: "Why? How did you analyze all that?"

"When we were on the phone just now, Cheng Ran said she and Gu Xingyue had broken up once before," Xu Qingzhu said. "So why would Gu Xingyue break up with her before? Even Cheng Ran could say something like 'three-tenths of a heart,' which means they should have been in the honeymoon phase before, but Gu Xingyue initiated the breakup. Before discovering Cheng Ran's infidelity, apart from being threatened after Yang Jiani found out, I can't think of any other reason."

"But why would Yang Jiani be against her dating?" Liang Shi asked subconsciously.

After asking, she fell silent.

She suddenly thought of it.

Xu Qingzhu also fell silent accordingly. The pen tip scribbled randomly on the paper. A few seconds later, she scoffed lightly: "How could Yang Jiani let her date? She's Qi Jiao now. If she dates, where would Yang Jiani find a puppet for emotional sustenance?"

Liang Shi lowered her brows and eyes and sighed heavily. "Gu Xingyue....."

After saying just her name, she couldn't describe it further.

Too tragic.

A tragedy that words couldn't describe.

"Weak people can only seek self-protection," Xu Qingzhu said coldly. "Only by being strong enough can one avoid being so tragic."

After she finished speaking, she put the paper and pen on the table and stood up, saying: "Alright, Teacher Liang, let's go to sleep."

After she suddenly stood up, she was a bit taller than Liang Shi. Liang Shi looked up at her, and the backlight happened to illuminate her entire person, making her look gentle and beautiful.

Even though she had no smile on her face.

"Xu Qingzhu." Liang Shi suddenly called her name warmly.

Xu Qingzhu's tone rose at the end: "Mm?"

Liang Shi's light brown pupils focused on her. "Good night."
