

Chapter 94-3

//

After eating, Liang Shi drove Xu Qingzhu to work.

Originally Xu Qingzhu had refused, but Liang Shi stood at the door twirling the car keys, and after Xu Qingzhu finished applying lipstick, said with a smile: "After a while when you want me to drive you, I won't be able to. Let me show off a bit now."

Xu Qingzhu glanced at her. "That's right, Teacher Liang will be a very busy person after this."

Liang Shi: ".....Not as busy as President Xu."

As they were about to leave, Xu Qingzhu pinched her waist, then Liang Shi smoothly pressed down on her hand, holding it the entire time as they went downstairs without letting go.

Xu Qingzhu's hands were always cold year-round. Liang Shi's palm wrapped around hers, just covering her hand.

Both their hands were pale, but upon close comparison, Xu Qingzhu's were slightly paler.

Xu Qingzhu's knuckles were small, her fingers more slender. However, her hands were bare, without any decorations.

Unlike Liang Shi, who still wore a decorative ring on her pinky finger.

Xu Qingzhu's fingers touched the cold ring, and she suddenly asked: "Wearing a ring on the pinky finger means you won't marry?"

"Aren't I already married now?" Liang Shi answered subconsciously.

Xu Qingzhu let out a light scoff. "Go on."

Her voice was clear and cold. Even when saying this word, it sounded like chiding, always giving the feeling that it would be followed by—you can use this line to fool others, but don't try to fool me.

Liang Shi explained: "It's a ring I bought casually. I wear it on whichever finger it fits. There's not that much significance to it."

Xu Qingzhu made a sound of acknowledgment and didn't respond further.

After dropping off Xu Qingzhu, Liang Shi drove to the café. When she arrived, Gu Zhaoyuan was already waiting in the shop.

The advantage of this shop was that it had private rooms with good privacy.

It was precisely because Liang Shi valued this point that she chose to meet with Gu Zhaoyuan here.

After entering the private room, Liang Shi asked Gu Zhaoyuan what he wanted to drink. Gu Zhaoyuan shook his head and said: "Just a cup of warm water."

Liang Shi ordered an iced Americano. After their drinks arrived and the server left the private room, Gu Zhaoyuan asked: "Miss Liang, where is Xingyue?"

"After she called me, we haven't met." Liang Shi said: "Last night I sent her a text message. Right now probably isn't a suitable time to contact her."

"Then....." Gu Zhaoyuan paused, then after a while said: "When will I be able to see her?"

Liang Shi pressed her lips together and shook her head helplessly: "The situation isn't clear yet. I don't know what happened to her either, and I'm afraid of acting rashly and hurting her. Her circumstances aren't good right now, so if we can avoid adding to her burden, we should. If I go to her workplace and can't find her, then we'll discuss it again."

Liang Shi told him about all the circumstances, just didn't reveal Gu Xingyue's specific workplace or expose her current situation.

For Gu Zhaoyuan, the less he knew, the better.

When Gu Zhaoyuan asked, Liang Shi said: "After you two meet, let Xingyue tell you. It's not really appropriate for me to talk about her affairs."

However, afraid that Gu Zhaoyuan wouldn't trust her, Liang Shi took out the group photo she had asked Rainbow for before, hid the key information, and showed Gu Zhaoyuan what Gu Xingyue looked like now.

"She's had plastic surgery." Liang Shi said: "So she might be different from what you remember."

Even though they hadn't seen each other in so many years, Gu Zhaoyuan still recognized Gu Xingyue at first glance.

In the group photo, he enlarged Gu Xingyue's appearance infinitely. Gu Zhaoyuan said she had a mole in the middle of her wrist.

Then Gu Zhaoyuan's expression became grave, and silence spread throughout the private room.

After a long while, Gu Zhaoyuan took out his phone. "I understand a bit more now. Back then, Xingyue was adopted by Mrs. Qi."

After Liang Shi left, Gu Zhaoyuan had tried to probe Gu Yingbo many times, wanting to learn more clues about Gu Xingyue.

Most of the time, Gu Yingbo was crazy and deranged, especially when Gu Xingyue was mentioned. He would always inexplicably go mad, then cry bitterly, constantly muttering: "Xingyue, I'm sorry....."

How could Gu Zhaoyuan not guess that this matter was definitely related to his father?

So he obtained the safe that his father had always hidden under the bed and treasured. It had a six-digit combination lock. He tried several passwords without success, and finally used the date of Gu Xingyue's car accident to open the lock.

Inside the box were photos of Gu Xingyue, and also an IOU—Gu Yingbo owed Yang Jiani twenty million.

For Gu Yingbo, who had been poor his entire life, he couldn't possibly come up with twenty million. Even Gu Zhaoyuan couldn't imagine where he had spent that twenty million.

Yet there was such an IOU.

There was also a written agreement from when Yang Jiani took Gu Xingyue away, stating she would treat her as her own biological daughter and give her an affluent material life, but Gu Xingyue must never have any connection with the orphanage for the rest of her life.

After Gu Zhaoyuan finished reading all these things, he was completely confused. When he asked Gu Yingbo again, Gu Yingbo would sometimes cry with tears streaming down saying "I'm sorry," and sometimes rave madly cursing "crazy woman."

He didn't get any results, but he shared all this information with Liang Shi.

Liang Shi knew more things on her end, and through a combination of guessing and deduction, basically understood some of it.

She told Gu Zhaoyuan to stay at a hotel in the city district tonight, and if there was news of Gu Xingyue, they would meet immediately.
