

Chapter 14

Yin Lingzhu put on an official smile, "Welcome, Yan Si."

The audience in the livestream suddenly increased, most of them because of Yan Si.

Since her debut, Yan Si had devoted herself wholeheartedly to acting. The content on her Weibo was all promotional material for new dramas, with very little about her personal life, close to zero.

Now that Yan Si appeared in a newcomer's livestream, it naturally attracted a large crowd.

Watching the audience numbers skyrocket, Yin Lingzhu felt very conflicted inside.

Rationally, she wanted to stay away from Yan Si, but deep in her heart, she still longed for Yan Si's closeness.

She took a long breath and began interacting with the livestream audience.

Most of the comments were related to Yan Si.

Asking about their relationship, asking why Yan Si would come to this livestream, and expressing their love for Yan Si in the comments.

Yin Lingzhu's answer to the first two questions was: "Boss taking care of employee."

She selectively ignored the latter type of comments.

A very small portion of the comments were actually about her.

Yin Lingzhu mainly chose to answer these comments.

She also knew that she could talk more about Yan Si during the livestream to increase her popularity, but she was unwilling to do so.

If Yin Lingzhu revealed the news of her divorce from Yan Si, she could immediately make headlines, but there was no need.

So Yin Lingzhu began fishing for needles in the sea of comments¹, catching comments related to herself.

【Bamboo², do you have any recent activities?】

"Everything is currently arranged by my agent, so I'm not clear about it yet."

【Who is the young lady next to Bamboo? So cute】

"She's my colleague, and her singing is also very good."

Yan Si didn't send any comments.

The livestream lasted for an hour.

During this livestream, Yin Lingzhu gained several hundred thousand followers. She understood in her heart that many people followed her because of Yan Si.

Kong Murui also gained followers, though not as many as those brought by Yan Si, but she still gained some.

Yan Si stared at the screen showing 【Livestream Ended】 for a long time, unable to come back to her senses.

Yin Lingzhu really seemed to not care about her.

At the thought of this possibility, the fear she had always buried deep in her heart finally burst out.

Her eyes revealed confusion - it shouldn't be like this.

Yan Si understood Yin Lingzhu's devotion to her this past year.

Her apartment had surveillance, so she knew Yin Lingzhu's every move in the room.

Yin Lingzhu loved her so much that she was willing to give her life, so why did she sign the divorce agreement, why did she want to leave her?

Yan Si noticed her assistant outside and called her in.

"Do you have a boyfriend?" Yan Si asked, looking at the assistant in front of her.

The assistant had been by Yan Si's side for several years and was hearing Yan Si ask this kind of question for the first time.

She nodded, "Miss Yan, I'm already married."

"Then tell me, why would someone who loves you very much still want to leave you?" Hearing the assistant's answer, Yan Si asked her confusion.

A bunch of melodramatic stories appeared in the assistant's mind, but seeing Yan Si in front of her without a trace of a smile, she didn't voice the stories she thought of.

"Perhaps she has some unspeakable difficulties, so she wants to leave." The assistant said carefully.

Unspeakable difficulties?

Yan Si tapped the table with her finger, considering this possibility.

But the next second she dismissed it. All of Yin Lingzhu's affairs this past year were under her control; there couldn't be any unspeakable difficulties.

"Are there any other answers?"

The assistant quietly glanced at Yan Si and spoke softly again, "I don't have experience either."

Yan Si didn't make things difficult for her and waved her hand to let her go.

The huge studio was exceptionally quiet.

Yan Si took out her phone, opened You Xiaoxiao's chat window, pursed her lips, and still typed out her inner confusion.

【Why did Yin Lingzhu sign the divorce agreement】

【Perhaps because she was heartbroken】

You Xiaoxiao's reply came very quickly, almost immediately.

【Heartbroken? I didn't feel that she was heartbroken.】

Before signing the divorce agreement, Yin Lingzhu hadn't shown any particularly strong emotions.

Yin Lingzhu only signed the divorce agreement after she left late at night. As long as she didn't leave late at night in the future, it would be fine.

She felt she had tested Yin Lingzhu's bottom line. As long as she didn't touch Yin Lingzhu's bottom line, they could stay together forever.

【You destroyed her glands and nearly killed her, how could she not be heartbroken】

Yan Si stared at the message You Xiaoxiao sent. Had she done something wrong?

【But after I did all these things, she didn't leave. It was only the night I left that she signed the divorce agreement】

Yan Si's fingers flew across her phone, expressing her thoughts.

【If I hadn't left that night, she wouldn't have signed the divorce agreement.】

You Xiaoxiao's message took a while to come.

【You left. Why did you leave? Because she had no pheromones left?】

Yan Si frowned, somewhat annoyed that You Xiaoxiao was asking so many questions.

【No, Si Xin sent a message saying she was afraid of thunder, so I left.】

Yan Si deliberately concealed that Si Xin's message was something she had asked Si Xin to send.

【The last straw that broke the camel's back³】

Yan Si didn't send any more messages, staring at the words above and falling into deep thought.

When she was young, her father's mistress came to their home and broke her father's most beloved vase. Her father was very angry, not only scolding the mistress but even slapping her.

But she could see clearly that the mistress had deliberately broken the vase.

Yan Si ran to ask the nanny who had always taken care of her why the mistress would do such a thing.

The nanny touched her head, her voice gentle as she explained, "She's testing the master's bottom line, the master's bottom line for her. As long as she doesn't touch the bottom line, she can stay with the master for a long time."

At that time, Yan Si understood that if you wanted to stay by someone's side, you had to know that person's bottom line.

But she had overlooked one phrase: "the master's bottom line for her."

Bottom lines change with people.

When Yan Si was testing, she had repeatedly touched Yin Lingzhu's bottom line.

It was just that Yin Lingzhu's bottom line kept lowering for her, until it couldn't go any lower.

Unfortunately, Yan Si didn't know about Yin Lingzhu's change.

She stubbornly believed that as long as she found what made Yin Lingzhu angry and then didn't do that thing, it would be fine.

Yan Si exited You Xiaoxiao's chat window and opened Yin Lingzhu's chat window.

【Why did you sign the divorce agreement】

There was a red exclamation mark in front.

Her finger moved slightly as she created a new account for herself.

Yan Si planned to use this account to add Yin Lingzhu as a friend. When she opened the friend request page, she stopped.

She didn't know what identity to use to add Yin Lingzhu.

Footnotes:

¹ Fishing for needles in the sea (大海撈針): A Chinese idiom meaning to search for something very small in a vast area - an extremely difficult task, like looking for a needle in a haystack.

² Bamboo (竹子): This is a cute nickname for Yin Lingzhu. Her name contains the character "竹" (bamboo), so fans affectionately call her "竹子" (bamboo).

³ The last straw that broke the camel's back: This idiom exists in both English and Chinese cultures, referring to the final small thing that causes a complete breakdown after many previous issues have accumulated.