

Chapter 24-4

The two spent the whole afternoon together. When they returned to the dormitory in the evening, Yin Lingzhu was holding two small goldfish in her hands.

As she pushed open the door, before Yin Lingzhu could even begin to describe the happy events of her day, she saw Yan Si sitting in the dormitory as well.

Seeing Yan Si, the smile on Yin Lingzhu's face stiffened for a moment, but noticing that the other two people in the dormitory were also there, she didn't show a cold expression.

"I've been waiting for you all day." Yan Si spoke first.

Yin Lingzhu placed the small fish in her hands on the table. "Is it something work-related?"

Yan Si shook her head. "Personal matter."

Hearing this, Yin Lingzhu looked toward her roommates in the dormitory. She didn't say anything, but Wan Miayin and Kong Murui already understood her meaning.

The two made up an excuse and escaped from the dormitory.

Wan Miayin closed the door from outside and was about to leave when Kong Murui grabbed her.

Wan Miayin looked at her in confusion, hearing Kong Murui whisper, "Let's listen."

Wan Miayin hesitated, but couldn't resist the temptation in her heart and pressed her ear against the wall.

"I want a child." Yan Si said casually, as if this was a very small matter.

Yin Lingzhu was shocked by her words, but still responded, "If you want one, then have one. Why are you telling me?"

"I want a child with you." Yin Lingzhu was playing with the small fish with her fingers when she heard these words, causing the water surface to ripple violently.

"Do you understand what you're saying?" Yin Lingzhu asked uncertainly.

"I know." Yan Si nodded without hesitation.

Yin Lingzhu was practically driven to bitter laughter by her.

"Yan Si, you really come up with one thing after another."

"You know the extent of my gland damage. Tell me, what use is an Alpha with a ruined gland?"

Yin Lingzhu calmly posed this question, but both people in the room understood the answer.

"But your gland can still be used." Yan Si looked into Yin Lingzhu's eyes.

Yin Lingzhu averted her gaze. "I'm not the only Alpha. Even S-level ones—with your abilities, you don't need me specifically."

"I don't want anyone else. Only you." Yan Si looked at her with determined eyes.

The two people outside the door heard the conversation content and looked at each other in shock.

"Impossible, Yan Si. You can have a child with anyone you want, but not with me." Yin Lingzhu sat in her chair and firmly rejected Yan Si.

She looked at the small fish in front of her. "Consider her as the child between you and me."

Seeing Yin Lingzhu like this, Yan Si felt grievance welling up in her heart. "I'm serious."

"Yan Si, you're twenty-eight. Stop being willful." Yin Lingzhu met Yan Si's red eyes and said.

"You should sign the divorce agreement now and regain your freedom. Then, if you wanted the stars, someone would pluck them for you."

Yin Lingzhu lowered her head again to look at the two small goldfish. "Actually, whatever you want now, others can give you."

"Yan Si, letting me go means letting yourself go."

Yan Si said nothing, tears falling drop by drop, right within Yin Lingzhu's line of sight.

Looking at those wet traces, Yin Lingzhu couldn't tell whether Yan Si was truly sad this time or just pretending.

Yan Si's acting skills were publicly recognized as superb.

Unable to distinguish between real and fake, Yin Lingzhu simply stopped thinking about it. She had already endured enough deception from Yan Si.

Seeing Yin Lingzhu unmoved by her appearance, Yan Si felt even more aggrieved.

"Then I'll leave first. Can I take the fish?" Yan Si looked at the small fish that kept swishing their tails.

Yin Lingzhu pushed the small fish toward her. "You can."

Walking on the way back, Yan Si held the fish in her arms like some precious treasure.

When she came to find Yin Lingzhu, she actually hadn't expected Yin Lingzhu to agree to her request in the first place.

Yan Si looked at the fish in her arms—two small fish with red bodies and white tails, swaying back and forth, looking extremely cute.

She wondered if Yin Lingzhu would take pity on her after learning about this and treat her a little better.

The facts proved that although Yin Lingzhu's attitude toward her didn't seem to soften, she still gave her a gift.

Yin Lingzhu looked at the two people in front of her, holding back a bunch of words they wanted to say but didn't, worried they might burst from keeping it in.

Footnotes:

No additional cultural footnotes needed for this chapter as the content is straightforward and doesn't contain culture-specific references that would require explanation for English readers.