

Chapter 36-2

Yan Si listened to the foul language coming from their mouths, anger accumulating in her heart and surging to the surface.

Unlike the fury in her heart, her tone was unexpectedly calm. "The Li family, the Wang family, the Zhao family."

With each word she spoke, the face of one person in the private room changed.

Although their families couldn't rank among the wealthy elite, they still had some influence.

Even Yan Si shouldn't know who they were.

Hadn't Yan Yuan said that Yan Si, this movie queen, was just someone the Yan family had thrown money at to create?

He also said that Yan Si wasn't favored by Father Yan, and that the future of the Yan family would definitely belong to Yan Yuan.

That's why they had come to curry favor with Yan Yuan.

Someone in the private room noticed something was wrong and quietly inquired of their companion.

"What's going on? Didn't Yan Yuan say that the Yan family belongs to him and that Yan Si has no say in things?"

The person next to him was one of the few who hadn't spoken up, and also one of the rare people who knew the truth.

"The Yan family is currently under Yan Si's control, but only very few people know this."

Their voices weren't loud, but in the current private room, even a dropped pin could be heard.

Their words were naturally heard by others as well.

Several of those who had said the most obscene things immediately turned pale.

"President Yan, I'm sorry, I was wrong. I shouldn't have said those things about you."

One person immediately reacted and apologized at once, slapping himself while speaking.

After two slaps, his face was already red.

Yan Si coldly watched his actions. "You're from the Li family."

Seeing Yan Si speak, the man thought his apology was working.

"Yes, yes, yes, I'm from the Li family."

Yan Si nodded.

The man thought Yan Si had forgiven him and immediately showed a smile on his face.

"Apologizing - is that done while standing?" Yan Si looked at him with a cold smile.

The man stiffened and heavily knelt on the ground. The sound of his knees hitting the floor made the others feel their own legs aching in sympathy.

At this moment, Yan Si's assistant arrived. Seeing the situation at the scene, she quickly understood what had happened.

Yan Si walked around the person kneeling on the ground and went straight to stand in front of Yan Yuan.

A large shadow enveloped Yan Yuan, and he felt some fear in his heart.

But thinking of the similar things he had done before, and how Yan Si had always let him off in the end.

Yan Si would let him off this time too.

Thinking this way, Yan Yuan relaxed and his posture became more at ease.

"Why are you getting angry? It's just two photos. It even boosted your popularity."

Yan Si squinted her eyes, looking at Yan Yuan in front of her.

After a long while, she let out a light laugh.

"Yan Yuan, have I been giving you too much face<sup>1</sup> lately?"

Yan Yuan's body stiffened.

Catching sight of the bodyguards at the door, who had been brought by her assistant, Yan Si ordered them to take Yan Yuan back to the Yan family home.

Yan Si then pointed to several other people - all those who hadn't spoken in the private room.

"You can leave."

"As for the rest, you need to assume the same position as him."

The "him" Yan Si referred to was the person who had slapped himself in apology and was now still kneeling on the ground.

After Yan Si left, some of those kneeling couldn't hold on and tried to stand up, but the assistant kicked them in the back of their knees.

"President Yan said to kneel until dark."

When the people below heard this, some became displeased.

"Why so late? I'm not kneeling anymore." Saying this, that person tried to get up.

Seeing this, the assistant had the bodyguards press down on his shoulders, forcing him to kneel.

Yan Si brought Yan Yuan to the Yan family main residence.

"This is your last time coming here." Yan Si said with no smile on her face, speaking through a crack in the door.

She had the bodyguards lock Yan Yuan in a guest room.

Seeing that Yan Si actually dared to confine him, Yan Yuan angrily kicked the door. "Yan Si, how dare you disobey Father's words!"

Yan Si, who hadn't gone far yet, heard his threatening words and felt quite disdainful.

This brother of hers still didn't understand anything even now.

Yan Si went to Father Yan's room.

Father Yan had been spirited and surrounded by beauties in his youth, but now there wasn't even one person to take care of him by his side.

Seeing Yan Si arrive, Father Yan stared at her with unwilling, wide eyes, also making "mm-mm" sounds from his mouth.

"Now, it's time for you to retire completely." Yan Si's eyes flashed with cruel light.

When she came out of the room, Father Yan had already stopped breathing.

The news of Father Yan's death was immediately spread by her.

When Yan Yuan heard her say this, he was incredibly disbelieving.

"Yan Si, how dare you do such a thing! This is treason<sup>2</sup>!" Yan Yuan glared angrily at Yan Si in front of him, as if he wanted to tear her apart.

"Yan Yuan, you should worry about yourself instead."

"If there's no more Yan family, you know what the consequences will be for you."

Yan Si's tone was calm, her eyes full of mockery in their depths.

Yan Yuan was stung by her gaze and instinctively wanted to get angry, but he was also truly afraid that Yan Si would abandon him.

But thinking of what Father Yan had told him, his confidence returned.

"Dad said that if he's gone, I have 50% of the company's shares." Yan Yuan looked at Yan Si with a triumphant expression.

Yan Si was almost amused by his stupidity.

"Yan Yuan, do you think I don't know why I've tolerated you so many times?" Yan Si looked at him.

"I originally didn't plan to move against you so early, but you insisted on provoking me."

Only then did Yan Yuan become panicked.

"Sister, sister, we're blood siblings!" Yan Yuan's tone was frantic. "You can't treat me like this."

Yan Si shook her head. "Soon, there will only be my name on the Yan family genealogy<sup>3</sup>. We won't have any relationship at all."

Yan Si's eyes held no warmth, her tone ice-cold.

After dealing with Yan Yuan, Yan Si finally began thinking about how to explain things to Yin Lingzhu.

She took out her phone, preparing to call Yin Lingzhu, when she discovered the Weibo post that Si Xin had made.

Yan Si immediately called Si Xin's manager and had her bring Si Xin to a club.

That club was under her name, so she didn't need to worry about news of their meeting leaking like last time.

Si Xin was brought to the club by her manager with a confused expression.

Just as she was about to ask what was happening, she saw Yan Si enter.

Her eyes showed panic for a moment, but quickly returned to calm - she had already prepared her explanation beforehand.

"President Yan, about that post of mine..."

Si Xin was about to give her explanation when she saw Yan Si raise her hand. She immediately understood Yan Si's meaning and closed her mouth.

"Si Xin, I told you before to apologize to Lingzhu. Did you do it?" Yan Si sat on the sofa and asked unhurriedly.

Si Xin stood in front of her. Hearing this, her eyes held hidden disdain, but her face remained respectfully humble.

Having her apologize to Yin Lingzhu was impossible.

"President Yan, I've been very busy recently, so it got delayed."

Yan Si could see the expression in her eyes and knew her intentions.

"Let's go. I'll personally take you to apologize to Lingzhu." Yan Si stood up without allowing any argument.

She had originally wanted to grab Si Xin, but she didn't want to touch her.

So she had the bodyguards restrain Si Xin and forcibly put her in the car.

Yan Si sat in the passenger seat, resting with her eyes closed.

The car drove smoothly on the road, heading toward Yin Lingzhu's film crew.

When they were almost there, Yan Si suddenly called for a stop.
