

Chapter 39-1

You Xiaoxiao desperately covered her pocket, but Yin Lingzhu's voice was getting louder and louder.

"Doctor, you don't need to worry about me."

Yin Lingzhu's voice could hardly be called speaking—it was practically shouting.

Even though You Xiaoxiao used all her strength, she couldn't cover up her voice.

Everything Yin Lingzhu said was received by the phone and transmitted to another one.

She saw the eager expression on Yin Lingzhu's face, as if she wanted to say something more.

"You should still consider where you can find people who can withstand S-level pheromones¹."

You Xiaoxiao anxiously interrupted her, her tone panicked.

You Xiaoxiao immediately stood up, "I still have other things to do, so I'll leave first."

After speaking, she immediately hurried out of the room.

If it weren't for the hospital's rule against running, Yin Lingzhu, watching her retreating figure, suspected she would have started running by now.

Yin Lingzhu silently sighed.

Her hand touched her own glands. What should she do?

She didn't know who to turn to in her heart.

In this world, she could be said to be completely alone.

The only person she had been intimate with was Yan Si.

But now Yin Lingzhu didn't want to have any relationship with Yan Si at all, so Yin Lingzhu ruled out this option first.

While Yin Lingzhu was worrying about who to find, she suddenly remembered that to get through her susceptible period², she could rely on suppressants³.

Yin Lingzhu immediately opened the orange shopping app and searched for "suppressants" in the search box.

Looking at the full screen of products that came up, Yin Lingzhu quickly clicked on one at random.

She looked at the options.

D-level, C-level, B-level, A-level.

There were no S-level suppressants.

Yin Lingzhu felt her heart beating a bit fast. She quickly clicked on customer service to ask why.

[Dear customer, our store doesn't sell S-level suppressants.]

Yin Lingzhu looked at the reply and immediately felt helpless.

She clicked on several more stores consecutively, all with similar replies.

Unwilling to give up, she continued clicking on dozens more stores.

Finally, she accepted the reality.

Ordinary stores don't sell S-level suppressants.

She put down her phone with a heavy heart.

What could she do?

Could it really be like what You Xiaoxiao said—temporary marking?

Yin Lingzhu thought for a while and still felt it wasn't necessary.

It was just a susceptible period. Even without suppressants, she didn't believe she couldn't get through it.

You Xiaoxiao left the room and was walking toward her clinic when someone blocked her path.

You Xiaoxiao carefully examined the person in front of her, and after seeing clearly who it was, she stepped back several paces.

"Ming Qingyun, why are you blocking me?"

Ming Qingyun was wearing a black suit, looking like she had just come from the company.

She directly stated her purpose, with no smile on her face, looking very cold.

"What happened to Lingzhu?"

Hearing the familiar name, she subconsciously covered her pocket.

"Why are you asking about her?" She looked suspiciously at the person in front of her.

Ming Qingyun was a rising star. Even the current You family might not fare well against Ming Qingyun.

You Xiaoxiao thought briefly, didn't hesitate, and told her about Yin Lingzhu's current situation.

"Her pheromones have been stored excessively in her glands, which is why she fainted."

"If her pheromones can't be released, it will be very harmful to her body."

Ming Qingyun nodded, indicating she understood, "Thank you."

With her long legs, she took two or three steps and was easily several meters away from You Xiaoxiao.

You Xiaoxiao, seeing her cold attitude, took advantage of the fact that she couldn't see and rolled her eyes.

What's with the attitude?

She made a "tch" sound with her mouth.

Just as she was about to leave, she suddenly felt something under her hand.

Through a layer of fabric, she subconsciously squeezed her pocket—it was a phone.

You Xiaoxiao froze in place. Everything she had just said to Ming Qingyun, Yan Si had heard it all.

Realizing this, You Xiaoxiao felt like she had been struck by lightning.

She walked back to her clinic with heavy, slow steps.

Footnotes:

¹ S-level pheromones: In the ABO universe, this refers to the highest grade of pheromones. S-level Alphas and Omegas have extremely potent pheromones that can be overwhelming to lower-level individuals.

² Susceptible period: Also known as "heat" for Omegas or "rut" for Alphas—a biological cycle where the individual experiences intense physical and emotional needs, typically requiring pheromone release or intimate contact.

³ Suppressants: Medications used in the ABO universe to suppress or control the effects of pheromones and biological cycles like heat/rut periods.
