

Chapter 43-1

Yan Si stared carefully at the screen again. Her intuition told her that the card was definitely problematic.

But she really didn't know what the problem with that card was at the moment.

However, Yan Si wasn't worried now.

Si Xin couldn't escape.

From Si Xin's mouth, Yan Si could also find out why that card made her feel strange.

On the other side, Si Xin returned to the villa, patting her chest as if she had survived a disaster.

When she encountered Yan Si, she really feared she wouldn't be able to get out of the elevator.

Yan Si had said one sentence, and she disappeared from all the TV dramas and movies she had appeared in.

And this was accomplished in just a few short days.

Now people on Weibo¹ were still puzzled about why they couldn't find her TV dramas. If it continued for a while longer, everyone would completely forget about her.

A few days ago, her company had also terminated her contract.

Before long, Si Xin would completely disappear from the entertainment industry.

Today, Yan Si letting her go was something she hadn't expected.

When had Yan Si become so kind-hearted?

Si Xin gritted her teeth. If that person hadn't insisted she go, how would she have encountered Yan Si today?

She found a bank card - this was given to her by that person.

Her going to provoke Yin Lingzhu today was also ordered by that person.

Si Xin sighed. This time, she had thoroughly offended Yan Si.

This villa was also a gift from Yan Si.

Perhaps Yan Si owned too many properties and couldn't remember them all, which was why she hadn't taken it back.

Her brother followed behind her, seeing her frowning and gritting her teeth.

His entire face showed extreme impatience.

"Sister, didn't you say we were going to get money? Now we didn't get the money, and I got injured too."

"What do you say we should do?"

The man's expression was seen by Yan Si, and Si Xin immediately flew into a rage.

"Do you know who the person you offended in the elevator was?"

Si Xin thought about what happened in the elevator.

She couldn't help but get angry at her brother now.

"Tch, wasn't it just an Omega?" The man said dismissively.

His tone was full of superiority.

This was an Alpha's contempt for an Omega from the bottom of his heart.

Hearing the man's arrogant words, Si Xin completely lost the desire to talk to him.

She took out her phone and transferred money to the man. "Fine, go see about your leg. Don't come looking for me in the future."

The man checked the amount and immediately became unhappy.

"One thousand yuan? Are you sending away a beggar?"

The man sat down on the sofa with a completely shameless rogue attitude.

"Don't think that just because I call you sister, you can put on airs."

The man held up five fingers. "Five hundred thousand. I won't leave for one cent less."

Si Xin looked at him incredulously, confirming again and again that she hadn't heard wrong or seen wrong.

She couldn't help but burst into curses.

"Are you crazy for money? Leave quickly, or I'll call security."

The man closed his eyes and lay loosely on the sofa.

He didn't take Si Xin's words seriously at all.

"If you don't give me money, I won't leave."

Si Xin calculated carefully in her mind.

She definitely couldn't beat her brother.

Si Xin glanced at the man's face, confirming his eyes were tightly closed.

She took out her phone and sent a message to the villa's security.

Although calling security once was quite expensive, compared to the man's outrageous demands, she knew which to choose.

After a while, Si Xin watched with satisfaction as two security guards, one on each side, lifted the man by his arms.

The two security guards carried the man out like carrying a small chicken.

Even though the man's face was now red with anger, and his arms and legs were flailing wildly, he still couldn't break free.

Si Xin watched the man's retreating figure and slammed the door shut with force, making a "bang" sound.

Just when she wanted to relax for a while, she heard another knocking sound at the door.

Thinking it was because she hadn't paid the security enough, she opened the door without any guard.

At the door, Yan Si's assistant's face carried a smile - a standard smile showing eight teeth.

Seeing this, Si Xin immediately wanted to close the door, but there was a particularly strong force outside preventing her from doing so.

In the room, Si Xin stood restlessly in front of Yan Si.

Yan Si sat on the sofa.

She glanced at Si Xin lightly. "Why did you cause trouble for Lingzhu today?"

Si Xin absolutely didn't dare to tell the real reason.

She had already thoroughly offended Yan Si. If she offended that person as well...

Then she would really be finished.

Si Xin kept her mouth shut and refused to speak.

Yan Si wasn't surprised by Si Xin's behavior.

She hadn't come to this place to get anything out of Si Xin anyway.

Yan Si glanced at her assistant.

The assistant immediately began searching the room.

Si Xin saw the assistant's actions and didn't understand at first.

But when the assistant found that bank card, she felt a wave of fear in her heart.

She tried to take the card back from Yan Si's hands.

Si Xin's face immediately put on a flattering smile. "This is just an ordinary card of mine, nothing useful."

"I haven't used it for a long time. It's even dusty."

She tried to use words to indicate that this card was really unremarkable.

Hearing her explanation, Yan Si thought Si Xin's acting skills were truly terrible.

Yan Si could clearly see the anxiety in Si Xin's eyes.

Yan Si looked at her with a half-smile, playing with the card in her hand.

Pale lies.

Watching Si Xin's eyes move with the card.

Now Yan Si could be certain that the owner of this card was definitely very important to Si Xin.

"Whose card is it?" Yan Si's tone suddenly became stern, her eyes staring intently at Si Xin.

The fear in Si Xin's heart was triggered, and combined with her habit of following Yan Si's orders in the past, she immediately blurted out "Ming—"

But her consciousness immediately controlled her mouth.

The rest of the words were instantly swallowed back.

But just one word was enough for Yan Si to know who it was.

Having achieved the purpose of this trip, Yan Si didn't want to linger here any longer.

Just as Yan Si was leaving, when Si Xin was about to close the door, she suddenly discovered there was still another person in the room.

Yan Si's assistant smiled at her.

"Miss Si, let's talk about the ownership of this villa, and..."

A cold gleam flashed in the assistant's eyes.

"Where you'll be living in the future."

Footnotes:

¹ Weibo: China's largest social media platform, similar to Twitter.