

Chapter 54-1

Yan Si's hand was linked with Yin Lingzhu's arm, and she calmly accepted everyone's gaze.

Yin Lingzhu felt somewhat uncomfortable, but for Yan Si's sake, she still straightened her chest.

Meeting everyone's eyes, they stepped on the red carpet and slowly walked into the grand hall.

The host family organizing this engagement party was surnamed Gu¹. The Gu family had two daughters, and it was the eldest daughter's engagement.

After greeting the host family, a large group of people quickly gathered around Yan Si.

Some had met Yan Si before, some had never met her but only heard of her.

All of them wanted to establish some connection with Yan Si.

Yin Lingzhu stood beside her, watching the constantly approaching crowd, and felt somewhat helpless.

She had never seen this kind of scene before.

Although these people didn't express it openly while they were around her.

Yin Lingzhu vaguely felt that these people in suits didn't take her seriously at all, and even found her to be in the way.

Seeing another person approaching, Yin Lingzhu planned to give up her spot.

She couldn't provide any help with business matters, so she shouldn't hinder Yan Si.

Even though she didn't know the people at this venue, she could tell that everyone here was very high-status.

At least their net worth was much higher than hers.

If Yan Si could communicate more with them, it would also help Yan Si with company matters.

Thinking this way, Yin Lingzhu said "I need to go to the restroom" to Yan Si and left her side.

In the restroom, Yin Lingzhu was washing her hands when someone stood at the door.

There were always people who wanted to use Yin Lingzhu to get close to Yan Si.

"You, come here."

Just as Yin Lingzhu finished washing her hands, she heard a voice.

Thinking of Yan Si still in the hall, and to avoid causing her trouble, Yin Lingzhu walked over to see what this person wanted.

"What's the matter?" Yin Lingzhu looked at her.

The person in front of her looked completely surprised. "Don't you know who I am?"

Yin Lingzhu looked at her carefully. The person in front had curled hair in big waves, elaborate makeup on her face, and lipstick that glinted under the lights.

A tight red dress showed off her curvaceous figure.

Yin Lingzhu unconsciously began comparing her to Yan Si.

"I don't know you. What's wrong?" Yin Lingzhu looked at her with a calm tone.

She carefully observed Yin Lingzhu's expression, and after confirming that Yin Lingzhu wasn't lying, she immediately smiled.

"I'm an artist from Li Entertainment²." Her eyes were arrogant, proudly lifting her head, waiting for others to flatter her.

Yin Lingzhu knew this company.

Yan Si's company held the leading position among entertainment companies. Anyone wanting to enter the entertainment industry would first choose to sign with Yan Si's company.

But the conditions to enter Yan Si's company were very strict.

Li Entertainment, on the other hand, had always hoped to replace Yan Si's company's position, but had never succeeded to this day.

It was still a place many people hoped to go to, and was also very difficult to enter.

Yin Lingzhu thought about these things in her mind while a polite smile appeared on her face.

"So?" Yin Lingzhu asked with a slight smile.

Seeing Yin Lingzhu's smile, the woman thought Yin Lingzhu was intimidated and became even more arrogant.

"As long as you tell me how you hooked up with Yan Si, I'll let you join Li Entertainment."

The woman looked at her own nails, pretending to be nonchalant, but the smile at the corner of her mouth still revealed her thoughts.

Her voice was urgent but confident.

As if she was certain that Yin Lingzhu wouldn't refuse her.

Yin Lingzhu also noticed her fingers—she had nail art done, and her nail color was the same as her lipstick color.

High-saturation bright red, flashy and vulgar.

"No thank you." Seeing that this was the woman's purpose, Yin Lingzhu casually refused and was about to leave.

Not expecting Yin Lingzhu's answer to be this, the woman's arrogant expression hadn't even been withdrawn yet and froze on her face.

"You said you don't want to?" The woman forcefully grabbed Yin Lingzhu's arm.

Yin Lingzhu felt the woman's fingernails digging into her flesh. Just as she was about to shake the woman off.

Yin Lingzhu saw Yan Si coming this way.

And she could also see that Yan Si had noticed the situation on her side.

Yin Lingzhu quickly pried the woman's hand away.

The woman's strength was no match for hers, and she easily broke free.

But it was too late now.

Yan Si was already standing in front of her.

Yin Lingzhu suddenly felt guilty, and she pointed at the woman. "She was pestering me."

Seeing Yan Si, the woman adjusted her skirt and hair.

She extended her hand toward Yan Si. "Hello."

Yan Si looked at her for a long moment.

Noticing Yan Si's attention, the woman brushed her bangs aside, fully exposing her face to both their view.

Watching her actions, Yin Lingzhu belatedly realized that this person was trying to seduce Yan Si.

Yan Si also noticed, and she paused, looking at Yin Lingzhu.

"Is she prettier or am I prettier?" Yin Lingzhu hadn't expected her to ask this and was stunned for a moment.

"You."

Hearing this, Yan Si finally felt a bit happier.

Just now she had put on a cold face and scared away some people around her who had improper thoughts.

After looking around the hall and not finding Yin Lingzhu, Yan Si had come to the restroom.

But as soon as she arrived, she saw Yin Lingzhu entangled with someone.

Yan Si's anger immediately rushed to her head.

After seeing the woman, she carefully compared herself with her before asking that question.

Getting the answer made Yan Si very pleased.

"Let's go."

She linked arms with Yin Lingzhu and walked away gracefully.

The woman's ignored hand remained in place.

She watched the two people's backs, withdrew her hand, and emotions churned in her eyes.

In the hall, there were still persistent people who, seeing Yan Si return, took a glass of wine and wanted to approach for a greeting.

Yin Lingzhu saw the attitude of the people around them—they looked at Yan Si like they were looking at a piece of meat.

Yan Si was also very annoyed in her heart, but she had to play the role completely.

To gain sympathy, she had established the image of a pitiful person in the company, and now no matter what, she could only continue the act.

Footnotes:

¹ Gu family (顾家) - A wealthy family hosting the engagement party. In Chinese high society, such family names often carry significant social weight and business connections

² Li Entertainment (李氏娱乐) - A rival entertainment company to Yan Si's company. In the Chinese entertainment industry, competition between major agencies can be intense, with companies vying for top talent and market position

³ "Hooked up" (勾搭) - A derogatory term in Chinese suggesting someone used seductive or manipulative means to attract a person of higher status

⁴ Business networking at social events - In Chinese business culture, formal social gatherings like engagement parties are important venues for making business connections and deals