

Chapter 54-2

She leaned close to Yin Lingzhu's ear, her voice very quiet, "You can casually eat some pastries and such. I'll find you after I finish talking with them."

The warm breath hitting her earlobe made Yin Lingzhu's lower back tingle, even feeling a bit itchy.

Yin Lingzhu nodded, "Don't worry about me. I understand these social obligations, and don't drink alcohol—your health is most important."

Yin Lingzhu wandered around areas near Yan Si, observing the behavior of the people around Yan Si.

In case any unexpected situation arose, she could also respond accordingly.

Yan Si keenly noticed Yin Lingzhu's gaze. Because Yin Lingzhu was present, even though she felt annoyed inside, she couldn't show it.

So Yan Si could only maintain a smile and deal with the people in front of her half-heartedly.

She should have brought her assistant along.

Yan Si thought this way.

Suddenly someone started making a fuss, "President Yan, why are you just holding a wine glass? You haven't taken a single sip until now."

The speaker's voice immediately stirred up a large group of people.

Everyone's voices joined together, chattering as they urged her to drink.

Yan Si's head buzzed, and veins bulged on her forehead.

She really wanted to lose her temper now. She should never have come to this gathering.

Their commotion was getting quite loud, and Yin Lingzhu immediately looked toward the group.

Yin Lingzhu also saw Yan Si's condition and could clearly see the unwillingness on Yan Si's face.

She swallowed the cake in her mouth and walked toward Yan Si.

Yin Lingzhu stood beside Yan Si, her smile flawless as she calmly took the wine glass from Yan Si's hand.

"Everyone, I'll drink for her."

Among the people surrounding Yan Si, someone immediately became displeased, "Who are you?"

This person's mood was interrupted, making him very unhappy, and his tone was also very disdainful.

The others were also dissatisfied with Yin Lingzhu who had suddenly appeared.

Yin Lingzhu hadn't thought about this problem and looked toward Yan Si.

In this situation, the atmosphere became somewhat awkward for a moment.

But Yan Si seemed to have anticipated this scenario.

"She is my Alpha."

Yan Si's volume wasn't loud, but everyone fell silent.

Yin Lingzhu also froze.

She looked at Yan Si in surprise.

Even saying she was an assistant brought to deflect drinks would have been fine.

After a few seconds of silence in the air.

Someone said with a trembling voice, "That's impossible."

Yan Si looked at him, "Of course it's true."

Her tone carried pride and determination.

Everyone present could hear it and looked at her in disbelief.

That person's question was also theirs.

Yan Si knew she had been somewhat impulsive, but looking at Yin Lingzhu, she didn't regret it now.

Yin Lingzhu was completely petrified now. She had just wanted to be someone to deflect drinks, but now it seemed different from what she had expected.

Among the crowd, there were still people who didn't believe it.

"President Yan, even if you don't want to drink, you don't need to make up this excuse."

Hearing this, Yan Si's face immediately turned cold, "Are you saying I'm lying to you?"

The smile that had been on Yan Si's face also disappeared, and her eyes stared directly at the person who had spoken.

That person felt panicked under her gaze and slowly retreated to the back of the crowd, letting others block her view.

Yin Lingzhu had now completely blocked out the voices from the outside world.

Her mind kept thinking about how Yan Si had just revealed their relationship.

Yan Si glanced at Yin Lingzhu and raised her hand to disperse the others.

"I'm sorry, I didn't mean to."

"I was also forced into it, so I misspoke for a moment."

Yan Si looked at her, lowering her head to reveal her slender and delicate neck.

Seeing her like this, Yin Lingzhu sighed, "It's fine. This is the truth after all."

Given Yan Si's current physical condition, what was there for her to argue about?

Yin Lingzhu thought this way and didn't want to say much more to Yan Si.

"Hello, I'm the second daughter of the Gu family, Gu Qi¹."

While they were talking, someone walked up with a smile.
