

Chapter 55-1

Her arrival simultaneously attracted the attention of both Yin Lingzhu and Yan Si.

Yan Si looked at Gu Qi carefully and found that this person didn't exist in her memory.

"Hello." Yan Si gave a simple greeting.

Gu Qi didn't mind her cold attitude at all.

When she smiled, her eyes curved into crescents, and her hair reached her shoulders, just a little above them.

Gu Qi's gaze turned to Yan Si, her face still wearing a brilliant smile.

"I also heard your conversation just now. I've never heard that President Yan was married before."

Hearing her say this, Yan Si felt impatience and irritation flash through her heart.

"We kept it secret before for her career." Yan Si's tone carried a hint of apology, looking quite genuine.

After hearing this, Gu Qi's smile became even wider, showing two cute dimples.

"Then why did you reveal it just now, President Yan?"

Hearing this question, Yan Si finally began to look at her properly.

Yan Si's eyes narrowed slightly as she looked at the young girl in front of her who still had a touch of innocence.

"What do you want to say?"

Gu Qi stared at her intently, "With President Yan's power, even if they had the guts, they wouldn't dare treat you like that, would they?"

Yin Lingzhu watched the atmosphere between them and felt something wasn't quite right.

Yan Si gripped Yin Lingzhu's hand, "What does this have to do with you?"

She could already sense that the girl in front of her seemed to be targeting her and Yin Lingzhu.

Seeing this reaction, Gu Qi felt happy inside.

But she saw that Yan Si's expression had already darkened somewhat.

Gu Qi suddenly smiled, "I'm just curious. If I said anything wrong, please don't mind."

"I see my sister calling me over there, so I'll go first."

After saying this, Gu Qi immediately ran off, impossible to stop.

Yan Si watched her, feeling the warmth belonging to Yin Lingzhu in her palm.

Her heart settled a bit.

Yan Si looked at Gu Qi's retreating figure. She always felt that this Gu Qi had come with a purpose.

Yin Lingzhu also glanced at Gu Qi, but immediately withdrew her gaze.

"Did you know her before?" Yan Si noticed that glance from Yin Lingzhu.

Yan Si's eyes were dangerous, and her grip on Yin Lingzhu's hand tightened.

Yin Lingzhu shook her head, "I don't know her."

Yan Si immediately followed up, "Then why were you looking at her?"

Yin Lingzhu looked at her and Yan Si's intertwined hands, "I just felt this young girl was a bit special at this venue."

Hearing the word "special," Yan Si's mental alarm bells went off.

"How is she special?"

Yin Lingzhu's gaze swept around the entire hall.

"Look at the people around us—they're all wearing suits, looking very serious, as if they have major deals to discuss at any moment."

Yin Lingzhu said with a smile, "But she looks like someone who just graduated from university, seeming out of place here."

Yan Si saw the smile at the corner of Yin Lingzhu's mouth and felt uncomfortable.

"What about me? Am I not special? Am I just ordinary among the crowd?"

Yan Si's tone carried a hint of anger, and she turned her head to the other side, clearly showing she didn't want to deal with anyone.

But she still hadn't let go of Yin Lingzhu's hand.

Although Yin Lingzhu didn't understand why Yan Si was acting this way, she still answered her question.

For now, it was better to appease Yan Si first.

"You're also very special." Yin Lingzhu shook Yan Si's hand, speaking in a gentle tone.

Hearing the word "also," Yan Si felt uncomfortable, but didn't dare go too far.

However, she didn't want to stay at this venue anymore, "Let's go. I'm tired."

Hearing this, Yin Lingzhu met Yan Si's eyes and indeed saw fatigue in them.

After they left, someone who had been secretly observing them emerged.

Gu Qi was now standing beside Ming Qingyun¹, watching the departing figures together.

"Look at you, still haven't let go after all this time."

Gu Qi said with exasperation.

Ming Qingyun didn't answer her. At this moment, she was almost greedily watching Yin Lingzhu's retreating figure.

Since that day, she hadn't seen Yin Lingzhu for a long time.

Gu Qi saw her friend's hopeless state and felt speechless inside.

"I've already done what you asked me to do. Remember what you promised me."

Gu Qi was quite depressed.

Just now she had suddenly run over and said all those things, wasn't it because she was threatened?

Now that Yin Lingzhu could no longer be seen, Ming Qingyun finally withdrew her gaze.

Hearing Gu Qi's words, Ming Qingyun smiled, "Make use of your remaining value."

Gu Qi rolled her eyes.

"Fine, fine, fine. I'm useless. Next time you have something like this, don't call me. I've known you for so long, and you still threaten me at every turn."

Footnotes:

¹ Ming Qingyun (明青雲) - A character who has appeared earlier in the story and seems to have romantic feelings for Yin Lingzhu. Her presence here suggests she orchestrated Gu Qi's approach to create problems between Yan Si and Yin Lingzhu. The name "青雲" literally means "blue clouds," often symbolizing high aspirations or success in Chinese culture.
