

Chapter 65-1

Hearing her say this, Wan Miaoyin finally was willing to lift her head and look at her.

Only then did Yin Lingzhu notice that Wan Miaoyin's eyes were slightly red, looking as if she had just been crying.

Yin Lingzhu's heart stirred slightly. She wanted to comfort her but didn't know what to say.

It was Wan Miaoyin who spoke first.

"Thank you."

There was gratitude in her eyes, along with some emotion that Yin Lingzhu couldn't understand.

Looking at Wan Miaoyin's eyes, Yin Lingzhu quickly said "you're welcome."

"Do you have someone you want to invite?" Yin Lingzhu couldn't help but ask.

But seeing the redness at the corners of Wan Miaoyin's eyes, she suddenly realized her words were quite unnecessary.

"As long as you have someone you like." Yin Lingzhu smiled, her smile carrying a sense of relief.

For her former sea king¹ moments, she could only try her best to make amends to ease the guilt in her heart.

No matter what, Wan Miaoyin had been hurt because of her.

Wan Miaoyin, sitting beside Yin Lingzhu, saw the expression on her face and pressed her lips together.

"I do have someone I like. She's also here, which is why I'm like this."

Hearing what Wan Miaoyin said made Yin Lingzhu's heart skip a beat.

But she couldn't directly ask about this, as saying it out loud would make her seem quite narcissistic.

Yet if she didn't ask, she couldn't put her mind at ease.

After much internal struggle, Yin Lingzhu made up her mind.

Just as she was about to speak, she saw Wan Miaoyin's finger lift up, pointing toward a place.

Yin Lingzhu looked in that direction and saw a person standing there.

It was a Beta.

"I have some feelings for her."

As soon as Wan Miaoyin's words came out, it immediately broke a group of people's hearts.

【I haven't even started shipping them and it's already over.】

【I don't believe it, this must be fake.】

【She admitted it herself, what's not to believe?】

【Wuwuwu, my CP, it looked so promising, but it's the first to BE².】

【I just started shipping and you tell me this???】

Yin Lingzhu glanced at that Beta, but couldn't see her face, only a back silhouette.

But just from the back view, she could still tell from the straight spine that this was a proper person.

Quite capable of inspiring good feelings.

Yin Lingzhu thought this and withdrew her gaze.

But suddenly remembering what she had wanted to say just now, her heart filled with embarrassment.

Fortunately she hadn't said it, otherwise she would have seemed so narcissistic.

Yin Lingzhu's toes were constantly curling inside her shoes.

Wan Miaoyin, whether she noticed or not, casually found another topic to skip over this one.

Yin Lingzhu then started talking with her as well.

In the distance, the Beta that Wan Miaoyin had just pointed to glanced in their direction.

But it was only for that instant. Yin Lingzhu didn't see it, but Wan Miaoyin noticed and shook her head at that person.

All of this was quietly captured by the cameras above and transmitted to the public's eyes.

【This pair somehow seems to match perfectly.】

【Right, that moment when they looked at each other was so shippable.】

【Didn't you guys ship others before? Now you've switched people?】

【Shipping CPs is mainly for our happiness, you wouldn't understand.】

【CP is something you feel with your heart. Even if it's just for that one moment, you can start shipping.】

In the afternoon, the game they played was 【Draw and Guess】 .

The specific content was similar to the morning's game. In the morning, people used body language to act things out, but in the afternoon, people would draw and let the people behind them guess.

The grouping situation remained unchanged, exactly the same as in the morning.

Yin Lingzhu glanced at the only Beta in their group. Thinking that Wan Miaoyin had feelings for this person, Yin Lingzhu had to make some plans for Wan Miaoyin.

But this game segment didn't have any activities that could enhance feelings. Yin Lingzhu sighed.

She arranged for Wan Miaoyin to be in the last position, letting her only be responsible for guessing, and arranged for the Beta to be in the third position, putting her right before Wan Miaoyin.

This was all she could do.

Having once loved someone like a moth to a flame, she understood that just looking at the person you like would unconsciously make you happy.

Their group also had Li Li.

Yin Lingzhu touched her chin, looking at the male Alpha in front of her, feeling slightly resistant in her heart.

Since last night, this person had inexplicably said they had met before, but wouldn't say where they had met, insisting that she guess.

Moreover, she always felt that Li Li harbored ill will toward her.

But since Li Li hadn't taken any targeted actions, she couldn't say anything.

Yin Lingzhu arranged Li Li in the first position, having him look at the word given by the production team and then draw it.

She stood in the second position to look at Li Li's drawing, guess the word, then draw it for the Beta.

Li Li seemed to readily accept this arrangement.

The first word given by the production team was "tiger" again.

Li Li looked at this word and showed a cold smile.

【Ahhhh, little brother Li Li looks so masculine and charming when he smiles.】

【Charming? Are you sure? I see malicious intent.】

【I think so too. Looking at that smile, I got chills even through the screen.】

【Tsk, you guys either randomly ship CPs or think everyone in the world is evil.】

【Hey you, you have to argue with everything anyone says, don't you?】

The time given by the production team was two minutes. Li Li didn't even use one minute before finishing his drawing.

For the remaining time, he crossed his arms, looking like he was drawing, but his brush never touched the drawing board once.

His attitude was completely recorded.

The bullet comments at this moment exploded like a pot.

【What does he mean by this? He sincerely doesn't want their team to win.】

【I think so too. I've been saying this person has problems since this morning when he wasn't playing properly either.】

【What benefit does he get from doing this? Really, so annoying.】

【Watching a dating variety show and getting half-dead angry. How did the production team find these people?】

The production team being scolded didn't make them angry at all. Seeing the ratings soar, they were too happy to be angry.

Footnotes:

¹ Sea king (海王): Chinese internet slang for someone who dates multiple people at the same time, similar to "player" in English. The term comes from the idea of "casting a wide net" like fishing in the sea.

² BE: Short for "Bad Ending" - internet slang used when a romantic pairing doesn't work out or has an unhappy conclusion.
