

Chapter 68-1

But even though they had changed into this attire, they didn't dare to be too presumptuous.

They only dared to film around Yin Lingzhu's vicinity.

Fortunately, there were quite a few staff members filming around Yin Lingzhu, so they didn't give themselves away.

The first task the production team gave them in the morning had a very cliché name.

【Make the sweetest flavor for her with your own hands】

After listening to the director's task requirements, Yin Lingzhu summarized it in one sentence.

It was just cooking a meal.

If it were the former Yin Lingzhu, the one who could only cook noodles in plain water, it would definitely be a very difficult task.

But the current her had already become quite proficient in cooking.

Each pair of partners was assigned a room with most seasonal vegetables stored inside.

They could choose a dish as their target based on their preferences or skill level, and the partners would work together to make this dish.

Then they would present this dish to the production team for tasting.

The pair with the highest score would jointly receive four cards.

Yin Lingzhu and Wan Miaoyin came to the room prepared for them. Looking at the room full of vegetables, Yin Lingzhu already had many dish names in mind.

But she didn't reveal this.

"What dish do you want to make?" she asked Wan Miaoyin beside her.

Wan Miaoyin tucked the hair that had fallen from her temples behind her ear.

"Let's make braised eggplant." She looked at Yin Lingzhu, asking for her opinion.

Hearing this dish, Yin Lingzhu was visibly stunned.

"You know my taste preferences?"

Yin Lingzhu said with some disbelief.

Braised eggplant was one of her favorite dishes before.

But because Yan Si liked to eat light dishes, she gave up her own taste preferences.

Wan Miaoyin looked at her with confusion, seemingly puzzled why she was so shocked.

"Isn't it normal that I know your taste preferences?"

Her tone carried intimacy.

Yan Si was carrying a camera, not too far from them, and could clearly hear their conversation.

After hearing what Wan Miaoyin said, Yan Si could easily imagine what comments would appear in the bullet comment section.

Yan Si's gaze, however, was reluctant to move away from Yin Lingzhu.

She hadn't looked at Yin Lingzhu this closely for a long time.

But she also didn't dare make her gaze too obvious, afraid of being discovered by Yin Lingzhu.

Yin Lingzhu immediately reacted as well.

She smiled a bit and didn't say anything.

Wan Miaoyin's words indeed caused a huge stir in the bullet comment section.

【Did Miaomiao's words reveal some incredible information?】

【Seems like they've known each other for a long time. Could it be they came here to officially announce their relationship?】

【You guys give it a rest. Wan Miaoyin already pointed out to you that the person she likes is a Beta.】

【The way they interact with each other is very harmonious. I don't believe they haven't been together before.】

Wan Miaoyin picked up several eggplants and was about to wash them when Yin Lingzhu saw this and stopped her in time.

"Let me do it." Yin Lingzhu took the eggplants from her hands.

"I can't cook, so let me handle these supporting tasks."

Yin Lingzhu rinsed the eggplants in her hands with water while speaking.

Wan Miaoyin didn't stop her and went to prepare the seasonings.

But Yan Si, who was not far away, heard this and froze in place.

Why would she say she couldn't cook?

Yan Si thought about this, and the camera on her shoulder almost couldn't be held steady.

You Xiaoxiao noticed her condition was off and quickly freed one hand to support Yan Si.

She said in a whisper, "If you drop your camera, it will draw a lot of attention. It won't be good if we're discovered."

Yan Si heard this and barely managed to exert some strength to steady the camera.

But her thoughts still hadn't returned.

"What if she just wanted to cook for you and didn't want others to eat her cooking?"

Seeing this, You Xiaoxiao could only say this.

While speaking, she knew how ridiculous and unbelievable what she was saying was.

But You Xiaoxiao saw that after hearing her words, Yan Si was obviously more composed, and she knew Yan Si had actually believed what she said.

This made You Xiaoxiao somewhat emotional—Yan Si would actually believe such words.

After hearing You Xiaoxiao's words, Yan Si's rationality naturally didn't believe it.

But when human emotions and human rationality conflict, when one side gains the upper hand, the other side becomes less important.

Perhaps Yan Si also knew in her heart that it was unbelievable.

But her emotions made her willingly accept the deception.

Yin Lingzhu seemed to sense their situation and glanced in their direction.

You Xiaoxiao noticed and immediately lowered her head.

Yan Si didn't make any big movements—she just slightly turned her head to the side.

Yin Lingzhu didn't notice anything unusual and lowered her head again, carefully washing the eggplants.

Wan Miaoyin's hands moved quickly—it looked like she often cooked at home.

Yin Lingzhu looked at the eggplants glistening with oil, unable to come back to her senses for a long time.

She probably hadn't eaten this dish for over a year.

Because she had to consider Yan Si's taste preferences, when she cooked, she also leaned toward light flavors.

It seemed like she hadn't done things according to her own wishes for a very long time.
