

Chapter 68-2

Yin Lingzhu was thinking about this and unconsciously zoned out.

It was Wan Miaoyin who reached out and nudged her that she suddenly snapped back to reality.

Yin Lingzhu quickly handed the vegetables in her hands to the judges.

She actually didn't care much about the final result.

But she saw Wan Miaoyin standing beside her.

Wan Miaoyin obviously cared a lot about the results of this competition. At this moment, she was concentrating intently, waiting for the judges' scores.

"Don't be too nervous, there won't be any problems."

Yin Lingzhu said comfortingly.

Wan Miaoyin heard her, but there was no relaxation on her face.

"I really want to win."

Wan Miaoyin showed a strong expression that Yin Lingzhu had never seen before.

She had always thought Wan Miaoyin was indifferent to worldly matters and had no ambition.

But when she thought about it again, she realized she was overthinking.

Living in this world, how could anyone have no ambition?

Just as she was lost in thought, she discovered that the judges had already given them their score.

"Ninety points."

When Yin Lingzhu heard the judge say this, her first reaction was to look at Wan Miaoyin.

Sure enough, Wan Miaoyin looked very excited.

She also looked into Yin Lingzhu's eyes and even wanted to step forward and hug Yin Lingzhu.

But Yin Lingzhu blocked her.

Their score was the highest group so far, so it was no wonder Wan Miaoyin was so excited.

But there was still one more group after them—Li Li and his Omega.

Yan Si, hidden among the staff members, also saw Wan Miaoyin's attempt to hug Yin Lingzhu.

Her grip on the camera tightened again.

It looked like she wished she could rush up directly and kill Wan Miaoyin.

You Xiaoxiao beside her had been worried at first that Yan Si would do something irrational.

But now she could see clearly that Yan Si was currently just a paper tiger¹—she only dared to get angry but didn't dare to actually bite.

You Xiaoxiao glanced at Yan Si, who was radiating coldness beside her, then looked at Yin Lingzhu on stage.

She couldn't help but sigh at how great the power of love truly was.

Despite being this angry, Yan Si could still maintain her rationality.

Yin Lingzhu felt an intense gaze and looked into the crowd.

But just like before, she still didn't discover anything.

Her gaze stopped on the person wearing a baseball cap—she felt inexplicably familiar with this person.

Yin Lingzhu looked carefully again, but couldn't find anything unusual.

She furrowed her brows and could only assume she was overthinking.

"What's wrong?"

Wan Miaoyin noticed her gaze and looked in the direction she was looking, asking.

Yin Lingzhu slowly shook her head, "Nothing, I just think these staff members work quite hard."

She casually found an excuse to brush it off.

That feeling of being watched since this morning—she didn't need to tell Wan Miaoyin about it.

"Their scores are about to be announced. Let's watch."

The "them" Wan Miaoyin referred to were Li Li and that Omega.

Yin Lingzhu knew what their scores meant, so she stopped being distracted and focused on waiting for the judges' scores.

Seeing that Yin Lingzhu finally stopped looking over, You Xiaoxiao let out a long breath.

That glance from Yin Lingzhu just now made her think they had been discovered.

At that moment, her heart jumped to her throat.

Fortunately, they weren't discovered.

You Xiaoxiao looked toward Yan Si.

But she found that Yan Si was still staring at Yin Lingzhu.

She bumped Yan Si with her shoulder, "Aren't you afraid of being discovered?"

Yan Si didn't even turn her head, and her mouth hidden under the mask moved slightly.

"Not afraid. She won't discover me."

You Xiaoxiao heard Yan Si's composure and confidence, wondering in her heart how she could possess such calmness.

You Xiaoxiao didn't ask out loud.

She silently moved away from the position next to Yan Si.

In case Yan Si couldn't control her temper later, she didn't want to become collateral damage.

On stage, the judges had already announced the scores.

Yin Lingzhu couldn't hear the discussion between the four judges—she could only see that before the judges announced the scores, there seemed to have been heated arguments.

But when the final scores came out, Yin Lingzhu and Wan Miaoyin still won.

Yin Lingzhu also noticed that when the scores were announced, Li Li's face obviously darkened.

And the Omega beside him also clearly looked unhappy.

Yin Lingzhu had no mood to care about the affairs between them.

After learning they had won, Wan Miaoyin became even more excited.

Yin Lingzhu couldn't stop her from reaching out.

The hug from earlier now finally happened.

"Great! We won!"

Wan Miaoyin's voice was loud, showing her excitement.

While speaking, she hugged Yin Lingzhu even tighter.

Yin Lingzhu didn't dare make any big movements and could only wait for Wan Miaoyin's emotions to calm down before pressing on Wan Miaoyin's shoulders to separate from the hug.

You Xiaoxiao saw this scene and her heart nearly stopped.

Even from several meters away from Yan Si, she could feel the coldness emanating from her.

Yan Si saw the scene on stage, her eyes so deep they seemed bottomless.

She turned her head, signaling You Xiaoxiao to come over.

You Xiaoxiao had been by her side for so many years and naturally knew how terrible Yan Si's mood was right now.

Even though she was unwilling, You Xiaoxiao's legs were still moving.

Footnotes:

¹ Paper tiger (紙老虎): A Chinese idiom meaning someone or something that appears threatening but is actually harmless or ineffective—all bark and no bite.