

Chapter 71-1

Yan Si's mind was now filled with images of how Yin Lingzhu used to be.

Only now did she understand what it meant to regret beyond redemption, what it truly meant to be heartbroken.

You Xiaoxiao saw the redness at the corners of Yan Si's eyes. She wanted to say something more, but couldn't find the words.

She sighed and immediately left the room, letting Yan Si think things through alone.

As soon as she stepped outside, her phone buzzed again.

You Xiaoxiao had a bad feeling.

She anxiously picked up her phone and saw it was another message from that detective.

Looking at the text on the screen, You Xiaoxiao's eyes widened.

This message wasn't as important in terms of identity as the previous one.

But the content it contained made You Xiaoxiao inevitably nervous.

She looked toward the door behind her and instinctively wanted to go in.

But thinking about Yan Si's current state, she was afraid that barging in to disturb her might have some negative impact.

Just as You Xiaoxiao was hesitating, the door suddenly opened from inside.

You Xiaoxiao could tell at a glance that Yan Si had been crying inside.

This shocked You Xiaoxiao considerably.

When the Yan family had died, Yan Si hadn't even cried—she had barely even attended the memorial service.

You Xiaoxiao was lost in these thoughts.

"Where is that pheromone extraction device?"

Yan Si's cold voice suddenly rang out, startling You Xiaoxiao.

"Ah, it's still in the same place, hasn't been moved."

After You Xiaoxiao finished speaking, she glanced at Yan Si with her peripheral vision.

"Are you going there?"

Yan Si didn't hesitate for a moment and nodded.

She wanted to know just how much pain Yin Lingzhu had endured back then.

Although You Xiaoxiao was puzzled, she didn't ask out loud.

She led Yan Si to the room where the device was stored.

Because the conditions for using this device were very strict, few people came to this room.

You Xiaoxiao didn't know what Yan Si planned to do here, so after opening the door, she just stood in place.

Yan Si walked forward and slowly lay down in the device.

You Xiaoxiao was somewhat surprised and even forgot what she had been about to say.

"What are you planning to do?"

You Xiaoxiao asked in surprise, even her voice cracking.

Yan Si had already positioned herself properly, "Extract my pheromones. Two years' worth."

You Xiaoxiao's surprise was written all over her face.

"Are you trying to kill yourself?"

Hearing You Xiaoxiao's words, Yan Si's face showed sarcasm.

"Back then, that's what she thought too."

When Yan Si closed her eyes, what appeared in her mind was the image of Yin Lingzhu lying in the device back then.

At that time, Yin Lingzhu knew nothing and only thought about her, while she had hurt Yin Lingzhu's heart again and again.

"Hurry up and start."

Yan Si urged.

But You Xiaoxiao was unwilling to turn on the device. She furrowed her brows tightly.

"No, I can't do this."

You Xiaoxiao's attitude was very firm.

A small bump appeared between her brows, and her eyes were full of disagreement.

Yan Si repeated what she had just said.

You Xiaoxiao still stood in place, unwilling to move.

Yan Si didn't hear footsteps, so she opened her eyes and turned her head to look at You Xiaoxiao.

"I'll say it one more time—start it."

Yan Si's eyes were full of coldness, without a trace of human emotion.

You Xiaoxiao couldn't help but take a step back.

She realized that Yan Si had truly made up her mind.

"Fine, but if you feel any discomfort, speak up."

You Xiaoxiao operated the device while speaking.

Yan Si closed her eyes.

With a "ding," the device started up.

Yan Si immediately felt something being drawn from her glands.

As time passed, this drawing sensation gradually intensified, eventually becoming a very obvious stabbing pain.

Yan Si's brows furrowed, and her closed eyes showed obvious distress.

You Xiaoxiao saw this, her fingertip already hovering over the pause button.

"Should we stop?" she asked urgently.

Two words squeezed out from between Yan Si's teeth: "Don't."

You Xiaoxiao sighed and could only move her finger away.

She watched the sweat flowing from Yan Si and wanted to reduce the amount of pheromone extraction.

But Yan Si seemed to sense her intention.

"Don't touch anything. Use the same data that was used on Lingzhu back then."

Yan Si's voice trembled somewhat, and a clear muffled groan escaped from her throat.

Hearing Yan Si's words, You Xiaoxiao could only abandon her thoughts.

The pain in Yan Si's neck gradually spread throughout her body.

Even her fingertips could feel a needle-like sensation.

Yan Si couldn't help but let out an "ah" from her throat to release her body's agony.

You Xiaoxiao's gaze moved away from her face and looked down, discovering that Yan Si's clothes were already soaked with sweat.

She couldn't help but ask again, "Should we stop?"

Yan Si's throat was now dry and hoarse. She wanted to say "don't," but whenever she exerted effort, her throat hurt.

She could only shake her head.

You Xiaoxiao looked at the four years displayed on the device and felt anxious.

If they really extracted four years' worth of pheromones, could Yan Si's body handle it?

You Xiaoxiao was very worried, afraid that Yan Si's body wouldn't be able to take it.

She knew that Yan Si hadn't used suppressants last night and had endured it with her body alone.

If Yan Si had never been marked, then the damage to her wouldn't be too severe.

But now, the damage to Yan Si's body was extraordinarily great.

You Xiaoxiao was very worried now, but there was nothing she could do.

She knew she couldn't persuade Yan Si to stop.

She looked at the painful expression on Yan Si's face, hesitated for a long time, then finally left the device.

She took one last look at Yan Si and left the room.
