

Chapter 75-1

Ji Jingrong could be certain that she had absolutely never dealt with the people in front of her before.

Why would they come looking for her?

Ji Jingrong watched them warily, her body firmly blocking the middle of the doorway.

Ming Qingyun already had no expression on her face, and seeing Ji Jingrong's behavior, she couldn't help but release a cold aura.

Along with Ming Qingyun came You Xiaoxiao.

You Xiaoxiao had a smile on her face. She hadn't told Yan Si about Ji Jingrong's return.

Back then, Ji Jingrong had been forced away by Yan Si using various means. This time upon returning, she must have resentment toward Yan Si in her heart.

This was also why they were seeking out Ji Jingrong.

Ji Jingrong's identity as a lawyer would be very helpful to them.

Yin Lingzhu returned to her own room, the anger in her heart still not subsided.

Anyone who was suddenly drenched with water in broad daylight wouldn't be happy.

Yin Lingzhu frowned, carefully thinking about what had just happened.

Just as she was thinking about what to do next, her room door was knocked.

She didn't think much of it, assuming it was Wan Miaoyyin, and opened the door without any guard.

But it wasn't Wan Miaoyyin at the door—it was Li Li.

Seeing this, Yin Lingzhu immediately wanted to close the door.

However, Li Li placed her hand across the door frame. Seeing this, Yin Lingzhu's expression darkened.

This scene reminded her of Yan Si.

Yan Si had done the same thing. She hadn't withdrawn her hand, so Yan Si's hand had been severely caught by the door.

She wondered how Yan Si's hand was doing now.

Yin Lingzhu suddenly snapped back to attention. Why was she thinking about her again?

But Li Li had already taken advantage of her distraction to forcefully push the originally half-open door completely open.

"If you're sick, go get treatment. Don't come here acting crazy."

Yin Lingzhu spoke irritably.

The angry expression on Li Li's face, upon hearing Yin Lingzhu say this, actually transformed into one of satisfaction.

"Do you know what Qin Luo's identity is?"

Yin Lingzhu shook her head. "I don't know, and I don't want to know."

He had sent away all the camera crew around them. After hearing Yin Lingzhu's answer, he laughed loudly several times.

"You're finished. You've offended Qin Luo—don't think about mixing in the entertainment industry anymore."

Seeing his maniacal appearance, Yin Lingzhu didn't want to say much more. In her view, this person was purely sick.

After Li Li had laughed enough, he discovered that Yin Lingzhu was staring at him as if she had seen something incomprehensible.

"You—you just wait and see who will dare to use you in the future."

Li Li thought he had delivered harsh words and walked away with his head held high like a victorious rooster.

Yin Lingzhu just felt that Li Li was like a sick person. She didn't bother with him and slammed the door shut heavily.

She returned to her room and saw the somewhat messy clothes inside. She frowned and began tidying up the room.

But when she was halfway through cleaning, suddenly the door was knocked again.

Yin Lingzhu let out a long breath, not wanting to deal with whoever was outside.

The knocking continued persistently, with the feeling that they wouldn't give up until Yin Lingzhu opened the door.

As the sound became louder and more urgent, Yin Lingzhu's patience was constantly being worn down.

The huge noise was enough to disrupt all of one's thoughts, and Yin Lingzhu had no mood to continue tidying the room.

She folded the clothes in her hands and put them in the wardrobe, then went to open the door.

"Oh, you finally came. I thought you were too scared to come out." Qin Luo's eyes were contemptuous, with Li Li standing beside him, quite pleased with himself.

Yin Lingzhu felt these two people were truly inexplicable. She believed she hadn't offended these two anywhere.

She also didn't want to look at Qin Luo and Li Li, so she glanced away toward other parts of the hallway.

Qin Luo had never been ignored like this before. He snorted from his nasal cavity, trying to attract Yin Lingzhu's attention.

Seeing this situation, Li Li moved close to Qin Luo's ear.

"Baby, I told you—Yin Lingzhu is just this arrogant. Look, she obviously looks down on you."

Although Li Li was very close to Qin Luo, his speaking voice wasn't very low. Yin Lingzhu could hear clearly.

Such obvious troublemaking made Yin Lingzhu look at him a couple more times.

Li Li keenly noticed Yin Lingzhu's gaze just now. Taking advantage of Qin Luo not being able to see, he wanted to give Yin Lingzhu a provocative look.

But when Li Li looked over, he discovered that Yin Lingzhu had looked away again.

Li Li's breath got stuck in his throat—he couldn't spit it out or swallow it.

The reason Yin Lingzhu hadn't looked at Li Li was because she had seen a familiar shadow in the hallway corner.

But when she tried to look more carefully, that figure had already disappeared around the corner.

Yin Lingzhu frowned, suspecting she had seen wrong.

When she brought her gaze back, she heard Li Li's voice adding more fuel to the fire¹.

Li Li's eyes were full of resentment and jealousy.

He was behind Li Li, so Li Li couldn't see his expression, but Yin Lingzhu took it all in.

Yin Lingzhu was very puzzled about why Li Li harbored such great malice toward her.

Earlier, Li Li had suddenly approached, saying they had met before, but Yin Lingzhu really couldn't remember.

Could he be a former romantic interest who had turned love into hate?

Yin Lingzhu frowned, pondering this possibility.

She looked Li Li up and down, then dismissed this possibility.

Li Li was built like a bear² and was also an Alpha. She couldn't possibly have been interested in him.

Li Li was enthusiastically bad-mouthing her in Qin Luo's ear when he suddenly felt Yin Lingzhu looking at him.

He also instinctively looked over, meeting Yin Lingzhu's eyes, and his speaking voice came to an abrupt halt.

"Continue talking. I'm listening."

Yin Lingzhu looked at him with a half-smile, her tone extremely cold.

Li Li could clearly feel that when Yin Lingzhu spoke, she had released her pheromones.

For Li Li, who was also an Alpha, S-level pheromones represented oppression from the very bones.

Sweat gradually appeared on his face as he looked at Yin Lingzhu in disbelief.

"You—how is this possible?"

Li Li's voice carried shock. His eyes widened as he subconsciously wanted to deny this fact.

But the mountain-like pheromones pressing down on him forced him to believe.

Qin Luo's heart was equally shocked, but he didn't show it as obviously.

His nape was slightly heating up—his heat period had actually been induced.

Qin Luo glared at her and left, pulling Li Li along.

S-level Alpha—he had to report this matter to the Qin family.

Footnotes:

¹ Adding more fuel to the fire: A common expression meaning to make a situation worse or more intense by adding provocative comments.

² Built like a bear: The Chinese phrase "五大三粗" literally means "five big and three thick," describing someone who is large and crude in build.
