

Chapter 78-2

"Li Li, what did you bring me here for?"

Qin Luo's eyes were full of impatience. He walked behind Li Li and said with dissatisfaction.

Li Li quickly stopped and comforted him. "Baby, I just saw Yin Lingzhu over here."

While speaking, Li Li's eyes were still looking toward Yin Lingzhu's direction.

"This is clearly the changing room, and besides," Qin Luo paused, looking around before saying, "there's not even a hair of Yin Lingzhu here."

Li Li heard Qin Luo's words, and disdain flashed in his eyes, but his tone remained indulgent.

"This is what we Alphas need to pay attention to. You Omegas just need to focus on being beautiful."

Qin Luo heard his words and lifted his head with a "hmph."

"Come on, you're the one living off me."

Qin Luo didn't notice that when he said this, Li Li's eyes suddenly darkened.

Qin Luo caught sight of the cameras around them out of the corner of his eye, and his heart skipped a beat. His face immediately returned to its previous indulgent expression.

"When I make money in the future, I won't need to use baby's money anymore."

Hearing Li Li's response, Qin Luo lightly "hmphe" twice but didn't say anything more.

Seeing this, Li Li resumed his previous role of leading the way.

But the more he thought about it, the more he felt that Qin Luo's earlier words made his heart feel blocked.

Although what Qin Luo said was the truth, saying it so suddenly really hurt his pride as an Alpha.

If it weren't for considering how wealthy Qin Luo's family was, he wouldn't indulge Qin Luo's young master¹ temperament.

Li Li suppressed the anger in his heart, planning to settle accounts later.

Yin Lingzhu and Wan Miaoyin were walking in the corridor when she noticed someone following them.

She glanced at a book on a shop table ahead and formed a plan.

She walked quickly forward, seemingly accidentally knocking the book off.

Yin Lingzhu took advantage of the moment when she turned back to pick up the book to see who was following them.

Catching sight that it was Li Li, Yin Lingzhu had a plan.

He was rushing to be eliminated.

Yin Lingzhu smiled slightly and pulled Wan Miaoyin quickly to a corner.

Li Li, who had been following behind them, discovered they had disappeared and also quickened his pace to chase them.

But what Li Li didn't expect was that after this corner, he couldn't see Yin Lingzhu anywhere.

Li Li wasn't panicked either. After all, Yin Lingzhu had several cameramen with her.

With so many people together, they would definitely be a big target.

Even if they were hiding in some room, they could be found quickly.

Li Li thought confidently, not caring whether Qin Luo could keep up behind him, and started searching on his own.

He heard Qin Luo calling his name, but he was still holding a grudge about what Qin Luo had said about money earlier, so he pretended not to hear.

Listening to Qin Luo's increasingly anxious voice, Li Li felt more and more pleased.

Hmph, without my protection, you can only be eliminated.

Li Li thought this way and, as if showing great mercy, turned his head to look in the direction of Qin Luo's voice.

"Well, well, seems like Li Li doesn't think much of you after all."

Yin Lingzhu's water gun was pressed against Qin Luo's badge, her voice lazily mocking.

"You, let me go quickly, or you'll have hell to pay later."

Qin Luo said threateningly, but his heart was beating fast.

Yin Lingzhu deliberately raised the gun a bit, letting Qin Luo see it more clearly.

After confirming that Qin Luo's attention was on her water gun, Yin Lingzhu's lips curved into a smile.

She slowly pulled the trigger, and just as water was about to shoot out from the water gun, she released it again.

Qin Luo's heart also went through ups and downs.

Yin Lingzhu repeated this action five or six times, and Qin Luo was scared five or six times.

"What exactly do you want to do?"

Qin Luo asked, mentally and physically exhausted.

Yin Lingzhu looked at him. "Don't you think this is fun?"

She squinted her eyes. Yesterday, Qin Luo had just sprayed them with a water hose, and today this game involved water guns.

Yin Lingzhu remembered Qin Luo's displeased expression when he got the water gun.

"This game was prepared by you, wasn't it?"

Qin Luo's eyes obviously flickered, and he said stubbornly, "How is that possible? What are you thinking?"

Yin Lingzhu saw through Qin Luo's lie but didn't expose it.

"I'll count to ten. If Li Li comes to save you, I'll let you go. If he doesn't react..."

Yin Lingzhu leaned close to Qin Luo's ear. "Then it's biu~²."

Qin Luo pursed his lips. "If Li Li comes to save me, would I still need you to let me go?"

Yin Lingzhu pressed the muzzle of the water gun against Li Li's badge. "So you're not doing it?"

Qin Luo felt the threat and had to nod.

But when he called out several times consecutively without any response, Qin Luo suddenly became angry.

He knew Li Li had heard him but was pretending not to.

When he called out again and saw Li Li turn around, he couldn't feel happy anymore.

Because he had already felt the water from Yin Lingzhu's water gun shooting out.

This meant he had already been eliminated.

The production team also discovered this situation in time, and the announcement was broadcast promptly.

Li Li heard this news, and surprise flashed across his face, immediately turning into anger.

He quickly ran to Qin Luo's side and angrily roared, "What's wrong with you? Why didn't you stay close to me?"

His behavior also startled Yin Lingzhu.

She hadn't expected Li Li to come up and immediately scold Qin Luo.

Yin Lingzhu glanced at Qin Luo and could see the disbelief on his face.

"You actually have this attitude toward me. Li Li, do you not want to survive in this industry anymore?"³

Footnotes:

¹ Young master: A term referring to the spoiled son of a wealthy family, often used to describe someone with a pampered and demanding personality.

² Biu~: An onomatopoeia representing the sound of a water gun shooting, delivered in a playful, teasing manner.

³ Do you not want to survive in this industry: This is a threatening phrase implying that Qin Luo has the power to end Li Li's career, likely due to his family's wealth and influence.
