

Chapter 82-2

There were only two people at the door. The assistant director had no choice but to resignedly open the door.

After seeing that the person inside was Yan Si, Qin Ruri's heart immediately panicked for a moment.

He hurriedly put on a smile on his face.

"President Yan, long time no see."

Qin Luo saw his obsequiousness.

"Dad, it's her! She hit me."

Qin Luo walked to Qin Ruri's side and started complaining.

"Dad, look, these are all from her hitting me."

Qin Luo pointed to the shoe print on his chest and the dirt on his legs.

Qin Luo thought the smile on Qin Ruri's face was just a fake smile.

Qin Luo glared at Yan Si. "Dad, if our company has any contracts with her, don't sign with her anymore."

Qin Ruri completely didn't expect Qin Luo to say such things.

But having always doted on his son, he didn't want to scold him either.

"President Yan, please don't be angry. My son is still young and doesn't understand."

Qin Ruri smiled obsequiously, placing his status very low.

"If he has offended you in any way, please don't take it to heart, President Yan."

Yan Si had no interest in going in circles with them. She saw that the bodyguard she had ordered earlier had returned, and he was carrying what she wanted.

Yan Si raised her hand to beckon the bodyguard over.

Qin Ruri also saw Yan Si's movement. Looking at the water in the bodyguard's hands, he was somewhat puzzled.

Qin Luo's face turned pale, and an ominous feeling surged in his heart.

The bodyguard carried a large bucket of water in his hands and stood beside Qin Luo.

Qin Luo was so frightened that he hid closer to Qin Ruri.

Qin Ruri also noticed Qin Luo's movement and looked at Yan Si.

"President Yan, what do you mean by this?"

Yan Si's eyes showed coldness. "He bullied my wi... my employee. I'm just returning the favor."

Yan Si's lips curved into a smile, the arc like the Grim Reaper's scythe, piercing into their hearts.

"President Yan, it's just a small employee. Give them some money and it'll be settled. Why be so angry?"

Qin Ruri still wanted to persuade her further, but Yan Si no longer wanted to listen.

Qin Ruri was unwilling, but the bodyguard only listened to Yan Si.

He mercilessly lifted the water above his head and poured it all over Qin Luo.

Qin Luo was drenched thoroughly from head to toe, not a single spot remaining dry.

Especially since Yan Si had told the bodyguard beforehand to chill the bucket of water for a while.

This bucket of cold water poured down solidly, making Qin Luo feel as if he had suddenly stepped into winter.

Yan Si watched the bodyguard pour the entire bucket of water over Qin Luo without leaving a drop, then withdrew her gaze.

"Tomorrow, I want to see your apology letter posted on all your social media accounts."

"Oh, and you don't need to participate in this show anymore. I'll pay the penalty fee for you."

Yan Si rested her hand on her chin, carefully watching the person at the tip of her heart on the screen, speaking carelessly.

Having been humiliated like this, Qin Ruri was holding back a belly full of anger.

Seeing his son completely soaked, his anger flared even more.

"Yan Si, I gave you face by calling you President Yan. If you force me like this, don't blame me for being impolite to you."

Yan Si didn't take Qin Ruri's threats seriously at all.

"Do as you please."

Seeing that she was still so arrogant, Qin Ruri snorted through his nose.

"Xiao Luo, let's go. Don't mind her."

Qin Ruri left angrily with Qin Luo, not looking back.

Yan Si didn't react to their departure.

However, the bodyguard beside her became somewhat uneasy.

"President Yan, we should still be careful of the Qin family's influence."

"You've humiliated Qin Ruri like this. I'm afraid there will be trouble in the future."

Hearing the bodyguard's words, Yan Si chuckled softly.

"The Qin family? You're talking about the old Qin family. The current Qin family is probably already a pile of mud."

The light from the screen reflected on Yan Si's face. The cold-toned light made her appear very indifferent.

But her gaze toward the screen was extremely gentle.

On the screen was Yin Lingzhu in an intense battle with another team.

Yin Lingzhu spotted an opportunity, aimed at the badge, and quickly made her move.

The water stream traced an arc through the air, landing precisely on the badge.

The broadcast announcement followed, confirming that Yin Lingzhu had successfully eliminated another team.

Yin Lingzhu looked at Wan Miaoyin smugly. "How about that? Pretty impressive, right?"

Wan Miaoyin smiled faintly, her dimples appearing and disappearing.

"Impressive."

She gave a thumbs up, very sincerely.

Yin Lingzhu smiled. "So later, should I deliberately go easy on her?"

Wan Miaoyin's brain hadn't reacted yet.

"Who?"

Wan Miaoyin said, somewhat confused.

Yin Lingzhu looked at Wan Miaoyin, confirming she really didn't know, her tone slightly shocked.

"The Beta you like, of course."

Only then did Wan Miaoyin have a sudden realization. She let out a long "Oh."

Then she looked at Yin Lingzhu with amusement. "Are you sure you can beat her?"

Yin Lingzhu nodded confidently.

Including Qin Luo's team, she had already successfully eliminated two teams tonight.

Yin Lingzhu was already feeling a bit cocky.

Seeing her so confident in herself, Wan Miaoyin didn't want to dampen her confidence.

"You just need to show your real strength."

"Really, if she loses, you better not feel bad about it."

Yin Lingzhu's teasing expression made Wan Miaoyin's heart itch a little.

"I'll only feel bad if you lose."

But she said this very quietly. Yin Lingzhu only noticed that Wan Miaoyin was saying something.

"What? I didn't hear clearly. Say it again."

Wan Miaoyin sighed and looked at Yin Lingzhu as if looking at a fool.

"I said, let's hurry up and find the other team."

Yin Lingzhu always felt Wan Miaoyin's look was strange. She raised an eyebrow. "How come I feel like what you just said wasn't this sentence?"

Wan Miaoyin just smiled and didn't speak.

Their interaction was being broadcast live clearly.

Ji Jingrong was also watching this livestream. Seeing their familiar banter on screen, her throat moved.

She looked away, not wanting to see this scene.

To be honest, she was a little jealous of Wan Miaoyin.

She could be so openly beside Yin Lingzhu.

But she, after returning to this city, hadn't even caught a glimpse of Yin Lingzhu.

She had to watch her beloved through a layer of glass, through a screen.

Ji Jingrong's heart felt sour, like a hard candy that had been sitting too long.

The sweetness slowly faded, leaving only the bitter acid of chemical ingredients.

Feeling the sensation in her heart, Ji Jingrong turned her head back.

She had been the one to actively leave this city back then. In the end, it was still her fault.

If she hadn't chosen to break through that layer of window paper¹ back then, they would at least be friends now.

But she had confessed to Yin Lingzhu. What did their relationship count as now?

Ji Jingrong felt slightly regretful in her heart.

Unfortunately, there's no medicine for regret in this world.

Ji Jingrong smiled bitterly and focused her gaze back on the person on the screen.

Footnotes:

¹ Break through that layer of window paper (捅破这一层窗户纸) - A Chinese idiom meaning to make something implicit explicit, especially referring to revealing romantic feelings or making a confession that changes the nature of a relationship.