

Chapter 37-2: Chu Qingqiu

Outside was chaos, but inside was deathly silence.

"Be careful." Ning Fuyi suddenly said. She stopped walking and reached out to push aside the weeds in front of her, her pupils immediately contracting.

Liu Wenzhu beside her, upon seeing the object in the weeds, was so frightened she almost cried out, but was quickly covered by Rong Jin's quick reflexes.

"This is, this is..." Liu Wenzhu had never seen such a scene before, her face immediately drained of color. "A dead person?"

"It's a disciple from Kongming Sect¹." Ning Fuyi said in a low voice. She bent down to place her hand on the person's pulse, then shook her head. "Already completely dead."

"But this Chaotic Realm is just a trial ground, protected by the divine site. Injured people would only be eliminated, they would never actually die!" Rong Jin also couldn't remain calm, hastily looking around but finding nothing.

Ning Fuyi looked at the disciple's blackened face, her heartbeat quickening for a moment.

That was the manifestation of being injured by demonic qi.

"Someone else has entered." she whispered.

"Someone else..." Rong Jin wanted to say something more but suddenly fell silent. All three heard shouting at the same time and immediately concealed their auras.

The shouting was very familiar. They quickly hid behind trees, and sure enough, over ten people flew down from the sky, split into two groups and landed.

Liu Wenzhu grabbed Ning Fuyi's arm. Ning Fuyi didn't need her reminder - she could see clearly who had come with one glance.

On the left were the Cloud Ascension Mountain Gate disciples who had left earlier. On the right were people from Guijian Sect².

"Just with your few low-cultivation people, you still want to snatch beast stones from us? Dream on!" Feng Ge's spiritual sword gleamed brightly, her hair tied high fluttering in the wind as she spoke harshly.

The several Guijian Sect disciples opposite her seemed not to hear her words at all, only raising their hands: "Hand over the beast stones."

"Truly shameless!" Feng Ge cursed. "Only knowing dirty tricks!"

"It really is people from Guijian Sect." Liu Wenzhu frowned. "Truly without honor. But Senior Brother Hong Ying and Senior Sister Feng Ge's cultivation is far above these people. They definitely won't lose to them."

"No." Ning Fuyi suddenly said, her eyes fixed tightly on those Guijian Sect disciples, her phoenix eyes narrowing slightly.

"What do you mean no?" Liu Wenzhu was confused.

"Those aren't people from Guijian Sect. It's the demonic clan's Soul Stripping Technique³. They've been possessed." Ning Fuyi said softly.

As soon as her words fell, the Guijian Sect people suddenly moved, all raising their hands at a strange angle.

"Demonic clan!?" Rong Jin said urgently. "Then we need to tell them! Otherwise there will be danger."

Before Ning Fuyi could say anything, Rong Jin had already leaped out: "They're demons, be careful!"

Ning Fuyi slapped her forehead. She herself didn't particularly care about these people's lives or deaths, but she had forgotten that Rong Jin was a bleeding heart.

She cursed under her breath, pressed Liu Wenzhu, who was also about to get up, back into the grass with one hand, transformed into a blur at the fastest speed, sent out a stream of immortal power to knock away the frontmost person, then used both hands to tackle several people at once, dodging the black smoke that sprayed from the hands of the Guijian Sect disciples.

When that black smoke emerged, the group felt as if they had entered the underworld, with vengeful spirits wailing everywhere.

Someone had already been entangled, fighting with the Guijian Sect disciples. But how could they match the demonic clan? For a moment there were screams everywhere and the pervasive smell of blood. The few people Ning Fuyi had pushed down were stunned, only now thinking to raise their hands to summon barriers to block the black smoke.

"Ning Fuyi?" Feng Ge dragged her spiritual sword and scrambled up in a disheveled state, quickly joining in dispersing the black smoke, saying in shock.

"Run quickly!" Ning Fuyi knew these people were formidable and shouted angrily. At the same time they were already surrounded, and another wave of crimson qi swept over everyone. At the critical moment, Ning Fuyi held her breath and bent down, reaching into her One-Thought Pearl to find a magical artifact.

She fumbled around twice without finding anything, but instead pulled out something furry.

Half an instant later, in the midst of black smoke and blood mist, she found herself staring into the big eyes of a white rabbit.

When had she put the Nightmare Beast in there?

Suddenly another gust of fierce wind struck, bringing pain as if it would slice her cheeks. In the flash of lightning and flint, Ning Fuyi didn't care about anything else and suddenly lifted up the rabbit.

She urgently shouted: "Chu Qingqiu!"

Author's Note: Nightmare Beast: Damn it, I should have died in Tongchuan!

Footnotes:

1. Kongming Sect (空明宗) - "Empty Brightness Sect," one of the six major sects composed of Buddhist monks
2. Guijian Sect (鬼见宗) - "Ghost Sight Sect," one of the six major cultivation sects, known for their unorthodox methods
3. Soul Stripping Technique (剥魂术) - A demonic technique that allows demons to possess and control the bodies of others