

Chapter 1-1

The air was filled with a thick strawberry scent, mixed with rich wine fragrance, causing a tremendous impact on Liang Shi's sense of taste.

A fire seemed to burn in her heart.

Heat ignited from her fingertips, burning straight to the deepest part of her soul.

Liang Shi's chest was about to explode, yet this fragrance grew increasingly rich.

With every breath, the scent rushed into her nostrils, making one want to get drunk here.

Liang Shi had to hold her breath, but the area behind her ears kept heating up, hot air permeating this narrow space. She seemed to hear soft moaning sounds by her ear.

Carrying temptation and pain.

Yet extremely alluring.

Strange fragments kept flooding into her mind, all scenes of indulgent pleasure, completely different from her past life, but these scattered pieces of information couldn't string together into a complete line.

Adding to this, her body was now burning with unbearable heat, every inch of skin felt like it was being burned by fire, craving to touch something.

She really wanted to drink that cup of sweet wine in one gulp to relieve her body's pain.

So uncomfortable...

Liang Shi finally struggled to open her eyelids. What met her eyes was a luxuriously decorated room, with soft white carpet spread on the floor, gold-plated chandeliers, and she was currently lying on the carpet, soft fur wrapping around her body.

She forced herself to organize those scattered fragments in her mind.

She seemed to have... transmigrated into a book¹.

She had become the cannon fodder scumbag Alpha² with the same name in a book called "Sweet Love." The original body, in order to obtain the peerless beautiful Omega³ Xu Qingzhu, took advantage of the Xu family enterprise crisis to force her way in, marrying Xu Qingzhu home. But Xu Qingzhu had an introverted personality, and because she had been kidnapped in childhood, she had severe post-traumatic stress disorder⁴, never allowing her to touch her.

The original scumbag Alpha initially tried to coax and deceive patiently, but seeing no effect, she revealed her true nature.

Later, she simply took advantage of Xu Qingzhu's heat period⁵, hid all the suppressants⁶ in the house, attempting to use her powerful Alpha susceptible period⁷ pheromones⁸ to suppress her, trying to bond with her and forcibly mark⁹ her.

In this world, Omega heat periods and Alpha susceptible periods both occurred once every three months. As long as an Alpha took advantage of their susceptible period to mark an Omega during their heat period, it would be a lifelong mark.

If they wanted to end this marking relationship, they would have to cut out the Omega's glands¹⁰.

Cutting out an Omega's glands meant that the Omega's physical condition would deteriorate and their lifespan would shorten.

And an Omega in heat period who didn't take suppressants and didn't bond with an Alpha would keep burning with fever until death.

So the scumbag Alpha Liang Shi had made full preparations for this action, but didn't expect that the introverted Xu Qingzhu was actually a very fierce person at heart. She took out scissors from under her pillow to resist, even stabbing her hand.

The scumbag Alpha Liang Shi became furious and slapped Xu Qingzhu twice that night.

Afterward, on a dark and windy night, she used her drunkenness as an excuse to cut out Xu Qingzhu's glands, causing her to be unable to conceive for life, lose her sense of taste for life, and have deteriorated physical condition.

The Liang Shi who had just transmigrated was currently in mental chaos, but her body was involuntarily attracted by the sweet scent in the room.

Her body seemed beyond her control, completely guided by the sweet Omega pheromones. She forced herself to stand up and immediately saw the Omega lying on the bed.

That alluring scent was emanating from there.

She wanted to get close to her ear, to smell her pheromones up close.

She wanted to embrace, to kiss, to do all sorts of crazy things.

She even wanted to hold her and gently lick her glands with her tongue.

That must be a very sweet taste.

Just imagining it made Liang Shi's body feel pleasant.

The Omega lying on the bed had a flushed face, seductive eyes like silk, skin as white as snow, but now tinted with a rosy red color, like being painted with beautiful rouge. She wore a snow-white silk camisole nightgown, with a silver necklace on her delicate collarbone.

Her smooth, white calves were exposed, her beautiful toes painted with bright red nail polish, but it wasn't vulgar at all. Instead, it complemented her entire cool temperament, combined with her currently hazy eyes.

Like white snow covered with a layer of red gauze.

Hazy, enchanting, captivating.

Even her pearly white foot gently rubbing against her calf, each movement seemed to rub against Liang Shi's heart.

That seemed not to be her foot, but a feather.

To achieve the goal of using susceptible period pheromones for powerful suppression, the scumbag Alpha Liang Shi hadn't used suppressants. Now constantly attracted by this sweet scent, every cell in her body was clamoring to embrace the Omega on the bed.

To mark this Omega, to make this Omega belong to her.

Liang Shi had no time to think and pounced onto the bed following her instincts.

The movement was too large, startling Xu Qingzhu who was on the bed trying hard to resist the attraction of the powerful Alpha pheromones.

She opened her eyes - they were like the eyes of a little deer lost in the forest, with dark pupils looking over innocently yet fearfully, misty with fright and despair.

Liang Shi had not yet completely taken over this body. The remaining consciousness of the scumbag Alpha was now thinking: "Mark her."

"Such an Omega was born to be conquered."

"She's only suitable to bloom beneath an Alpha."

"As long as I mark her, she will fall in love with me from then on."

"..."

The original scumbag Alpha's thoughts kept emerging, all shameful and despicable ideas.

But such thoughts made Liang Shi's body feel instinctively excited.

Liang Shi couldn't help but despise this body.

But her hand had already touched the Omega's skin.

Chapter 1-2

The Omega who had been pampered since childhood had a delicate body and soft skin. Her skin was like expensive silk fabric, smooth and textured to the touch. Getting close to smell her pheromones, it was the scent of strawberry Baileys¹.

This was a liqueur that Liang Shi really liked. This scent in the romantic atmosphere stimulated every cell in Liang Shi's body.

The bedroom had no lights on, only moonlight filtering through the gauze curtains, the hazy moonlight spilling onto the Omega's body, coating her with a layer of enchanting color.

"Liang Shi." Xu Qingzhu clenched her fists. "Don't touch me."

"Without my mark, you'll die." This sentence suddenly appeared in Liang Shi's mind, and her body even wanted to say these words, but she bit down on her tongue tip.

Fortunately, she didn't say it out loud.

"I won't touch you." Liang Shi said as she backed away, her body leaning against the wardrobe, but her body was also constantly being attracted by the Omega pheromones. She gripped her palms tightly, her nails almost piercing through her skin. The pain helped her regain a trace of reason.

She knew she couldn't stay in this room any longer.

For a susceptible period Alpha and a heat period Omega to be in the same room resisting their bodily instincts was extremely difficult, especially when she currently couldn't fully control this body.

So she left behind a sentence, "I'll go call an ambulance for you."

Then she stumbled and ran out of the room.

The moment she left the room, plot content from the storyline was transmitted into her mind.

After the scumbag Alpha Liang Shi cut out Xu Qingzhu's glands, Xu Qingzhu escaped her control with the help of her admirers, was hospitalized for treatment, and after discharge, struggled to support the family enterprise, bringing it back from the dead and becoming someone respected by everyone in Haichuan City².

Meanwhile, the scumbag Alpha's glands were cut out by Xu Qingzhu's admirers and fed to dogs. She was also exposed as not being the real Alpha eldest daughter of the Liang family - the true Liang family heir was actually someone else. The original body already had countless enemies, and in the end, she was reduced to begging on the streets, had her legs broken by Xu Qingzhu's admirers, and even had her glands dug out and fed to dogs.

Liang Shi: "..."

Isn't living good?

Liang Shi swallowed, having not yet finished organizing these fragmentary contents when she saw the phone screen on the ground light up.

This was the original body's phone.

She picked it up and used facial recognition to unlock it. Messages kept popping up.

-How did it go? Was it successful?

-How does Haichuan's number one Omega taste? Slutty enough?

-If you get tired of playing with her, remember to call us, let's do it together. /smirk

-Now that you mention it, I want to try tomorrow too.

-How about tomorrow, together? @Liang Shi

The messages they sent in the group were numerous and chaotic, mostly revolving around Liang Shi and Xu Qingzhu.

Liang Shi frowned as she finished reading the messages, thinking what kind of trash the original body was.

To actually joke about her own wife with others.

She replied impatiently: [Get lost.]

The group immediately exploded.

But Liang Shi didn't look at their messages anymore.

She directly switched out and called 120, accurately stating the location and the type of suppressants needed.

Then she leaned against the door, gasping heavily. The dress on her back was already soaked through, now sticking clammily to her body. The sweet scent of Omega pheromones kept coming, and her rationality was once again on the verge of collapse.

She raised her hand and bit down hard on her hand, trying to use pain to divert her attention.

This pulled back a trace of rationality.

She gently pushed open the door, just wanting to check on Xu Qingzhu's condition, but unexpectedly, as soon as she opened the door, the Omega on the bed opened her eyes and warned her with a hoarse voice, "Don't come over."

Her expression was painful, clearly struggling to suppress the attraction of the pheromones.

Liang Shi didn't understand.

Why would that scumbag Alpha want to harm such a lovely Omega?

But thinking of Xu Qingzhu's future appearance and the original body's fate, Liang Shi's heart pounded. She suppressed her body's intense pain and forced herself to appear calm: "The ambulance will be here soon. By the way, let me tell you a secret."

Xu Qingzhu looked up, those hazy eyes showing confusion.

The silk camisole had slipped down, revealing that proud cleavage.

Liang Shi turned her face away and said awkwardly: "Actually, I'm unable to mark with my pheromones."

Xu Qingzhu: "?"

"So don't worry." Liang Shi said: "I can't do it."

Xu Qingzhu: "...?"
